The Song of the Bird Anthony De Mello, 2016-07-05 Every one of these stories is about YOU Anthony de Mello Everyone loves stories and in this book the bestselling author of Sadhana A Way to God shares 124 stories and parables from a variety of traditions both ancient and modern Each story resonates with life lessons that can teach us inescapable truths about ourselves and our world De Mello's international acclaim rests on his unique approach to contemplation and ability to heighten self awareness and self discovery His is a holistic approach and in the words of one reviewer his mysticism cuts across all times and peoples and is truly a universal invitation The Song of the Bird uses the familiar yet enduring medium of the story to illustrate profound realities that bring us in touch with the problems and concerns of daily life as well as with our common spiritual quest The aim is to develop the art of tasting and feeling the message of each story to the point that we are transformed Let the story speak to your heart not to your brain the author directs This may make something of a mystic out of you Enhanced by lovely ink drawings this is indeed a volume to treasure to share and to read many times over for it is everyone's best companion on the road to spiritual growth

Spiritual Masters for All Seasons Michael Ford, 2009 Every age needs figures of spiritual inspiration but in times of recession and uncertainty they are essential in helping us to rise above despair and to search for God deep within ourselves In this new book Michael Ford invites four spiritual masters onto the same stage for the first time and shows how they speak not only to our own times but for all seasons Thomas Merton Henri Nouwen Anthony de Mello and John O Donohue all died suddenly at the height of their fame as spiritual masters but they continue to have immense followings What was their secret and why do their legacies endure Through unpublished interviews with some of the authors themselves encounters with their friends and reflections from readers who have been inspired by their writings Michael Ford journeys across the United States and Europe to assess their place in the world of contemporary spirituality He goes behind the scenes of the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky to hear first hand from monks who were novices under Merton visits Lambeth Palace in London to discover Merton's influence on the Archbishop of Canterbury talks to people about how Nouwen the proverbial wounded healer helped them through depression because he had suffered himself speaks to Jesuits who worked with de Mello in India and tries to find out how close the international storyteller came to Buddhism and takes a walk with O Donohue through landscapes in rural Ireland that feature in such books as Anam Cara and discusses the appeal of Celtic spirituality Blending the spiritual with the journalistic Michael Ford presents four unique writers as Spiritual Masters for All Seasons
