The World of Francis Cooper: Nineteenth-Century Pennsylvania Photographer, 1999 Beyond the Lines Joshua Brown, 2023-04-28 In this wonderfully illustrated book, Joshua Brown shows that the wood engravings in the illustrated newspapers of Gilded Age America were more than a quaint predecessor to our own sophisticated media. As he tells the history and traces the influence of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper with relevant asides to Harper's Weekly, the New York Daily Graphic, and others, Brown recaptures the complexity and richness of pictorial reporting. He finds these images to be significant barometers for gauging how the general public perceived pivotal events and crises: the Civil War, Reconstruction, important labor battles, and more. This book is the best available source on the pictorial riches of Frank Leslie's newspaper and the only study to situate these images fully within the social context of Gilded Age America. Beyond the Lines illuminates the role of illustration in nineteenth-century America and gives us a new look at how the social milieu shaped the practice of illustrated journalism and was in turn shaped by it. The Great Strikes of 1877 David O. Stowell, 2024-03-18 A spectacular example of collective protest, the Great Strike of 1877 actually a sequence of related actions, was America's first national strike and the first major strike against the railroad industry. In some places, non-railroad workers also abandoned city businesses, creating one of the nation's first general strikes. Mobilizing hundreds of thousands of workers, the Great Strikes of 1877 transformed the nation's political landscape, shifting the primary political focus from Reconstruction to labor, capital, and the changing role of the state. Probing essays by distinguished historians explore the social, political, regional, and ethnic landscape of the Great Strikes of 1877, long-term effects on state militias and national guard units, ethnic and class characterization of strikers, pictorial representations of poor laborers in the press, organizational strategies employed by railroad workers, participation by blacks, violence against Chinese immigrants, and the developing tension between capitalism and racial equality in the United States.
