Suicide Explained The Australian Experience:

Suicide Explained Riaz Hassan, 1995 Suicide explained the Australian experience Undeserved Death: A Study on Suicide of Farmers in Andhra Pradesh (2000 - 2005) K.S. Bhat, S. Vijaya Kumar, 2006-07-12 The multi dimensional nature of farmers distress in several states of India is pushing farmers to commit suicides The deficiencies in institutional factors those related to credit insurance supply of inputs such as seeds fertilizers pesticides and marketing are becoming serious Social factors such as the non empowerment of elected local bodies the exploitative attitude of moneylenders and merchants and gender discrimination are aggravating the deprivation of small and marginal farmers and landless agricultural labourers Compounding the crumbling institutional and social support systems are the other factors such as disconnection between research education and extension organizations and rural realities land degradation unsustainable exploitation of groundwater and consecutive droughts All these resulted in the agrarian crisis more particularly in Andhra Pradesh Karnataka Kerala Tamilnadu Maharashtra Madhya Pradesh Orissa Gujarat and Punjab Analyzing some of these factors pertaining to agrarian crisis and farmer s suicides a pilot study and other articles in this book analytically bring out the prevailing situation in Andhra Pradesh A few articles in the book also highlight the situation in Karnataka Maharashtra and Punjab Some of the implications discussed by the academicians activists researchers and others will definitely help the policy makers in their future programme to safeguard and strengthen the livelihood security of the families of resource poor small and marginal farmers The book will be of immense use both for the scholars and the government authorities Suicide and Society in India Peter Mayer, 2010-10-18 In India about 123 000 people take their own lives each year the second highest total in the world There is a suicide death in India almost every 4 minutes and it is the leading cause of death for rural Indians especially women in early adulthood This book presents a comprehensive analysis of suicide in India based on original research as well as existing studies and looks at the issue in an international sociological and historical context The author looks at the reliability of suicide data in India and goes on to discuss various factors relating to suicide including age gender education and marriage Among its findings the book exposes a hidden youth suicide crisis in India which is argued to be far more serious than the better known crisis of farmer suicides The book dispels many myths that are commonly associated with suicide and highlights a neglected public health problem Suicide in the region of Pondicherry is looked at in detail as well as in the Indian Diaspora This book is a useful contribution to South Asian Studies as well as studies in Mental Health and Sociology Policing and the Mentally Ill Duncan Chappell, 2013-06-13 In countries with democratic traditions police interactions with the mentally ill are usually guided by legislative mandates giving police discretion and possibly resulting in referrals for assistance and treatment But all too frequently the outcome of these interactions is far less therapeutic and leads to a cycle of arrests and ultimately incarceration Stemming from an initiative in Memphis Tennessee two decades ago police departments in many parts of the world have set up specific programs with crisis intervention teams to facilitate police contact with the mentally ill Policing and the Mentally Ill International Perspectives examines how these types of programs have fared in jurisdictions across the world The book begins with developments in North America and Europe traditionally the locus of much of the innovation and change in policing and related areas It demonstrates how a number of jurisdictions in Europe have only recently begun to recognize therapeutic intervention with the mentally ill as a priority issue and still frequently suffer from a lack of significant resources The largest section of the book focuses on Australia where local law enforcement agencies have displayed a remarkable enthusiasm for and commitment to change in their management of interactions with citizens with mental illness Finally the book examines the particular challenges of providing humane and effective policing for persons with mental illnesses in parts of the developing world These challenges often involve dealing with entrenched cultural beliefs and practices based on superstition fear and prejudice regarding persons thought to be mentally ill Interactions between police and persons with mental illnesses comprise an important and sensitive aspect of everyday policing The 16 chapters in this book offer a wide range of cross cultural perspectives on this essential aspect of policing enabling police practitioners to develop a best practices approach to managing their interactions with this vulnerable segment of the community

Farewell to the World Marzio Barbagli, 2015-10-06 What drives a person to take his or her own life Why would an individual be willing to strap a bomb to himself and walk into a crowded marketplace blowing himself up at the same time as he kills and maims the people around him Does suicide or voluntary death have the same meaning today as it had in earlier centuries and does it have the same significance in China India and the Middle East as it has in the West How should we understand this distressing often puzzling phenomenon and how can we explain its patterns and variations over time In this wide ranging comparative study Barbagli examines suicide as a socio cultural religious and political phenomenon exploring the reasons that underlie it and the meanings it has acquired in different cultures throughout the world Drawing on a vast body of research carried out by historians anthropologists sociologists political scientists and psychologists Barbagli shows that a satisfactory theory of suicide cannot limit itself to considering the two causes that were highlighted by the great French sociologist mile Durkheim namely social integration and regulation Barbagli proposes a new account of suicide that links the motives for and significance attributed to individual actions with the people for whom and against whom individuals take their lives This new study of suicide sheds fresh light on the cultural differences between East and West and greatly increases our understanding of an often misunderstood act It will be the definitive history of suicide for many years to come

Dynamics for Life Quality in the Incipient 21st Century Chau-kiu Cheung,2022-08-18 This book addresses the life quality of the average adult in the world based on international data weighted according to national population size It rests on the theoretical framework of analytic functionalism to explain statics and dynamics in the production of life quality The statics means the influences of personal and national factors on life quality whereas the dynamics mean the changes in the influences over time This approach elucidates life quality at the personal level rather than at the national level which overlooks what happens to the average person living in the world The approach involves a broad view of the production of life quality including experiences practices and appraisals of life This production also involves personal background characteristics and the national indicators of modernization globalization and environmental issues Knowledge about the production is helpful for policymakers researchers students and other people to upgrade life quality Such knowledge is valuable because it is up to date generalizable and sensible based on the analytic functionalist theoretical framework and statistical estimation Resilience Process and Its Personal and Social Bases Chau Kiu Cheung,2024-10-30 This book is to elucidate personal and social bases for personal resilience thus addressing the issue concerning the predominance of social factors in shaping resilience Essentially the book starts with a clarification of resilience as a phenomenon rather than a trait The clarification also identifies the personal bases in terms of the resilience process which specifies belief about resilience as a precursor to learning about resilience action for resilience and resilience successively To justify the personal and social bases the book expounds the analytical functionalist framework to specify voluntaristic and deterministic mechanisms to perform the four requisite functions of goal attainment adaptation integration and latency Equipped with the conceptual and theoretical grounds the book proceeds to scrutinize the effects of personal and social factors on resilience and its process The personal factors include personal background characteristics personality functional disability and various beliefs whereas the social factors include experiences of caring peace violence and social exclusion in society kindness sociability and aid from other people and social capital The scrutiny engages five databases about 6 948 Chinese people in Hong Kong and neighboring Chinese cities composed of the public service users older adults students and people with visual impairment Overall the book presents ample theoretical and empirical substances to clarify the genesis of resilience

Australian Aboriginal Studies ,2004 Social Work Diagnosis in Contemporary Practice Francis J. Turner,2005-02-10 The unifying theme of this broad reaching volume is that responsible ethical and effective social work practice rests on the diagnostic skills of the practitioner Social work diagnosis refers to the conscious formulation of an ongoing set of decisions about the client and his or her situation which serve as the basis for intervention decisions for which the practitioner must be prepared to take responsibility Diagnostic skill development is an ongoing process principally enhanced by a continuous commitment to remain at the cutting edge of the profession's body of knowledge but one of the challenges for today's practitioner is keeping abreast of the rapidly expanding body of knowledge contained in some 200 important social work periodicals in circulation Francis J Turner a preeminent clinical scholar brings together in one volume some of the best work published since 2000 each reflecting new insights into understanding psychosocial situations and innovative methods of applying knowledge and skills in an increasingly effective manner Each of the 78 articles in this volume highlights some of the critical dimensions of contemporary social work practice guiding clinicians to address four key aspects in order to craft an accurate diagnosis The first section presents articles covering the developmental spectrum each of which fully explains various ages and stages of development The second section focuses on a range of specific situations helping practitioners and students enrich their understanding of different types of problems they meet in contemporary practice whether they are based in mental illness psychosocial issues or physical ailments The third section addresses the crucial component of diversity demonstrating the complexity and critical importance of truly understanding clients and their lives The last section of the book discusses innovative approaches to practice selected to offer practitioners easy access to the latest interventions for a host of contemporary challenges facing clients and their therapists Broad in scope and tightly focused on the goal of providing the most up to date information necessary for accuracy in the diagnostic process this volume represents some of the best research available to today's social workers
