Divine Appointments Jason Horne, 2025-07-21 Imagine being paralyzed in bed as you receive visions from God once you are released they end up happening in real life that very same day one resulting in a healing You then receive the invitation from God to go into all the world literally and continue to have encounters that are divine in nature to see Him move in people s lives in miraculous ways Would your answer be yes or no Jason said yes There are a total of three thousand locations that have been identified to visit in God s perfect timing Divine Appointments is a book that gives an account of the lives of the people touched and altered by God during the travels of the first year of an estimated seven year journey This book is designed to encourage other ordinary simple people to recognize that they too can step out in faith and be used by God as He works in people s lives Aberration of Mind Diane Miller Sommerville, 2018-09-25 More than 150 years after its end we still struggle to understand the full extent of the human toll of the Civil War and the psychological crisis it created In Aberration of Mind Diane Miller Sommerville offers the first book length treatment of suicide in the South during the Civil War era giving us insight into both white and black communities Confederate soldiers and their families as well as the enslaved and newly freed With a thorough examination of the dynamics of both racial and gendered dimensions of psychological distress Sommerville reveals how the suffering experienced by Southerners living in a war zone generated trauma that in extreme cases led some Southerners to contemplate or act on suicidal thoughts Sommerville recovers previously hidden stories of individuals exhibiting suicidal activity or aberrant psychological behavior she links to the war and its aftermath This work adds crucial nuance to our understanding of how personal suffering shaped the way southerners viewed themselves in the Civil War era and underscores the full human costs of war Righteous Carnage Timothy B. Benford, James P. Johnson, 2000-06 At about 9 o clock on the morning of November 9 1971 soon after sending her three children off to school Helen List sat in the kitchen drinking a cup of coffee She was still in her nightgown and slippers John List came up behind her and put a 9mm German made Steyr automatic pistol to the side of her head and fired once She died instantly The bullet smashed into the opposite wall John made his way up the stairs to the third floor where his 85 year old mother Alma wearing a housedress was preparing breakfast in her efficiency kitchen She was standing near the storage room that adjoined her kitchen when a 9mm bullet ripped through the side of her skull Alma List was dead before her body crumpled in a heap on the floor The righteous carnage had begun God You're Breaking My Heart Brian

Grogan,2016-05-07 Most of us puzzle all our lives over suffering Why should this happen to me Why should that happen to someone whom I love Is God out to punish me What have I done to deserve this The problem of suffering and evil tortures the human mind Each of us develops our little philosophy of suffering I deserved it God punishes those he loves Darkness is the shadow of God s outstretched hand etc From the beginning we can presume humankind puzzled over the things that went wrong injury death famine Only when we meet God face to face will our complaints and queries be fully set at rest In the meantime we can be comforted and comfort others by the glow of light that the Christian tradition offers On a dark night even a small candle is a help until the big light is switched on Divine light shines in the darkness of suffering which the darkness cannot overcome that are bruised Luke 4 18      Death, Religion, and the Family in England, 1480-1750 Ralph Anthony Houlbrooke, 2000 The interest and importance of the social history of death have been increasingly recognized during the last thirty years Ralph Houlbrooke examines the effects of religious change on the English way of death between 1480 and 1750 He discusses relatively neglected aspects of the subject such as the death bed will making and the last rites He also examines the rich variety of commemorative media and practices and is the first to describe the development of the English funeral sermon between the late Middle Ages and the eighteenth century Dr Houlbrooke shows how the need of the living to remember the dead remained important throughout the later medieval and early modern periods even though its justification and means of expression changed      Building a Ministry of Comfort and Compassion Elaine Cook, 2005-06 For the first time in my life I finally see purpose for all I have endured with God s amazing Grace I have a compassion for others who are hurting Not necessarily just widows but all hearts I have a sense about people that I can look into a crowd of faces and sense they are hurting I do not know the hurt they are experiencing but I feel their hurt I often speak to various groups about grief or other similar topics and I look across a room and can just feel the look on their faces by searching their hearts I cannot explain it Some often refer to it as the gift of discernment I often refer to it as a curse because after I experience that it drains me emotionally and physically But I feel that God uses those times to keep me fresh and true to my feelings and where they come from in order to help others There is no handbook for women who suddenly find themselves on the downward spiral to widowhood Building a Ministry of Comfort and Compassion isn t a guideline but a source of hope and encouragement on the journey into and through widowhood as experienced by author Elaine Cook      The Wideness of God's Mercy Jeffery W.
