Neimeyer, John T. Maltsberger, Antoon A. Leenaars, 2013-02-01 Treatment of suicidal people takes three forms prevention strategies to avert conditions leading to suicide intervention treatment and care during the crisis and postvention response after the event has occurred Unlike other current literature here the focus is on the state of the art of intervention This type of examination is essential because suicidal people themselves are in need of such treatments crisis intervention psychotherapy psychopharmacology and hospitalization Written by professionals in the field the Treatment of Suicidal People allows readers to participate in a learning experience First is a case presentation of an individual Arthur Inman and his long road toward suicide as chronicled in his personal diary The second section puts forth guidelines for the evaluation of suicide risk and crisis intervention A focus on more sustained efforts in psychotherapy is next a theme which is continued in the fourth part by addressing psychiatric issues that are essential for treatment of highly disturbed and lethal patients The following section examines a number of clinical and legal issues that transcend any one population of suicidal people and any particular treatment approach or context And lastly the volume returns to Arthur Inman with case consultations providing alternative perspectives and recommendations on his treatment Suicide and related forms of self injurious behaviour can be circumvented if the involved professionals are sufficiently trained in assessment and prevention

The Right to Be Protected from Committing Suicide Jonathan Herring, 2022-06-16 This book argues that suicidal people have the right to receive treatment and for reasonable steps to be taken that they are protected from killing themselves Those suffering threats to life from mental health issues deserve the same protection as those who face threats to life from ill health or violence from others The book explores the ethical and legal case for giving those beset with suicidal thoughts the treatment they need and for reasonable steps to be taken to prevent them attempting suicide Debates around suicide tend to be dominated by cases involving those with terminal medical conditions seeking assisted dying But of those wishing to die it is far more common to find middle aged men and young people oppressed by mental health and personal problems Too often the woeful failure in the funding of mental health services in the UK means that suicidal people are denied the support and help they desperately need This ground breaking book makes the legal and ethical case for recognising that the state and public authorities have a duty to provide and implement an effective suicide prevention strategy
