Faye Christenberry, Angela Courtney, Liorah Golomb, Melissa S. Van

Vuuren,2012-08-08 Postcolonial literatures can be defined as the body of creative work written by authors whose lands were formerly subjugated to colonial rule In previous volumes of this series the research literature of former British colonies Australia Canada Ireland and New Zealand have been addressed This volume offers guidance for those researching the postcolonial literature of the former British colonies in Africa the Caribbean and South Asia Among the forty nations represented in this volume are South Africa India Pakistan Ghana Jamaica Swaziland Belize and Namibia With the exception of South Africa which formed the Union of South Africa in 1910 this guide picks up its coverage in 1947 when both India and Pakistan gained their independence The literature created by writers from these nations represents the diverse experiences in the postcolonial condition and are the subject of this book The volume provides best practice suggestions for the research process and discusses how to take advantage of primary text resources in a variety of formats both digital and paper based bibliographies indexes research guides archives special collections and microforms The Stepmother Tongue John

Skinner,1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature Vikram Seth's Poetics of Pastiche Mélanie Heydari,2024-09-21 Vikram Seth is a critical enigma He is recognized as one of the most important Indian Anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied Perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of Seth s work is his disregard for intellectual fashion Indeed Seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable His literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference He defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels As the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in Seth s work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of Seth s literary strategies It provides scholars and students insight into the key features of Seth s work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices Indian English Novel in the Nineties Sheo Bhushan

Shukla,Anu Shukla,2002 Contributed articles English Language Study Material & Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2023 24 BSST English Language Study Material Solved Papers Know No Boundaries Lateral Collateral,2014-04 It is

neither a thesis nor it is a novel Not it is a fantasy not even a fairy tale With an event of mass disobedience we start No shot is fired no one is physically hurt On a sunny day at every airport of the world People queue up for check in with no visa in hand One and all in all the classes economy first or business No one had a visa world citizenship each like to harness No international flight takes off From Wellington where the day starts From other airports of New Zealand too No other plane departs Nowhere in the world from any airport Took off any International flight Following day was no different And the following night All airlines give up No end of the tunnel no ushering light The main suspect behind these events was John John s identity is however very clear To all passengers he is very dear For questioning his role in mass disobedience Arrested was John and served punishing sentence He was punished to undergo forensic probes For extracting his memoir and his hopes To get the events that led him to his roles To his visions to cross boundary ropes The Indian Law Reports ,1891
