Southern Identity and Southern

Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry Ping Wang, Nicholas Morrow Williams, 2015-01-01 From ancient times China s remote and exotic South a shifting and expanding region beyond the Yangtze River has been an enduring theme in Chinese literature For poets and scholar officials in medieval China the South was a barbaric frontier region of alienation and disease But it was also a place of richness and fascination and for some a site of cultural triumph over exile The eight essays in this collection explore how tensions between pride in southern culture and anxiety over the alien qualities of the southern frontier were behind many of the distinctive features of medieval Chinese literature They examine how prominent writers from this period depicted themselves and the South in poetic form through attitudes that included patriotic attachment and bitter exile By the Tang dynasty poetic symbols and clichés about the exotic South had become well established though many writers were still able to use these in innovative ways Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry is the first work in English to examine the cultural south in classical Chinese poetry The book incorporates original research on key poets such as Lu Ji Jiang Yan Wang Bo and Li Bai It also offers a broad survey of cultural and historical trends during the medieval period as depicted in poetry The book will be of interest to students of Chinese literature and cultural history Ping Wang is assistant professor of Chinese at University of Washington Seattle Nicholas Morrow Williams is research assistant professor at the Mr Simon Suen and Mrs Mary Suen Sino Humanitas Institute Hong Kong Baptist University A long overdue appreciation of the South as a center for the production of medieval Chinese literature as well as a focal point of Chinese cultural and intellectual reflection and identity this collection of essays by a stellar roster of leading scholars offers an immensely rich contribution to the study of classical Chinese poetry Martin Kern Greg 84 and Joanna P13 Zeluck Professor in Asian Studies Princeton University This book presents a systematic study of how the symbol of the southland was reinvented in medieval Chinese literature taking readers on a cultural and geographic journey to survey the continuous rewriting of the South and its identity Yu Yu Cheng Distinguished Professor of Chinese Literature National Taiwan University Sunshine

Desire and Infinity in W. S. Merwin's Poetry Feng Dong,2021-12-15 In the first monograph on W S Merwin to appear since his death in 2019 Feng Dong focuses on the dialectical movement of desire and infinity that ensouls the poet s entire oeuvre His analysis foregrounds what Merwin calls the other side of despair the opposite of humans articulated personal and social agonies Feng finds these presences in Merwin s evocations of what lingers on the edge of constantly updated socio symbolic frameworks surreal encounters spiritual ecstasies and abyssal freedoms By examining Merwin s lifelong engagement with psychic fantasies anonymous holiness entities both natural and supernatural and ghostly ancestors Feng uncovers a precarious relation with the unarticulated unrealized side of existence Drawing on theories from Lacan i ek Levinas and Heidegger Desire and Infinity in W S Merwin s Poetry reads a metaphysical possibility into the poet s work at the intersection between contemporary poetics philosophy and psychoanalysis

The Ideology of Imagination Forest Pyle,1995 To demonstrate his thesis the author undertakes critical re readings of four major Romantic authors Coleridge Wordsworth Shelley and Keats and shows how the legacy of ideology and imagination is reflected in the novels of George Eliot He shows that for each of these writers the imagination is neither a faculty that can be presumed nor one idea among others it is something that must be theorized and in Coleridge s words instituted Once instituted Coleridge asserts the imagination can address England s fundamental social antagonisms and help restore national unity More pointedly the institution of the imagination is the cornerstone of a revolution in philosophy that would prevent the importation of a more radical and more French political revolution
