

A watercolor illustration of a bird, possibly a hawk or eagle, in flight. The bird is shown from a side profile, with its wings spread wide. The feathers are rendered in shades of blue, grey, and brown. The background is a soft, textured wash of light blue and white, suggesting a sky or a misty atmosphere. The overall style is artistic and painterly.

The Letters of Robert Frost Robert Frost, 2016-09-13 The second installment of Harvard's critically acclaimed five volume edition of Robert Frost's correspondence contains letters from 1920 to 1928 400 of them gathered here for the first time His 160 correspondents include family friends colleagues fellow writers visual artists publishers educators librarians farmers and admirers Anything That Burns You Terese Svoboda,2016-01-01 The first full length biography of Lola Ridge a trailblazer for women poetry and human rights far ahead of her time This rich and detailed account of the life and world of Lola Ridge poet artist editor and activist for the cause of women s rights workers rights racial equality and social reform From her childhood as a newly arrived Irish immigrant in the grim mining towns of New Zealand to her years as a budding poet and artist in Sydney Australia to her migration to America and the cities of San Francisco Chicago and New York At one time considered one of the most popular poets of her day she later fell out of critical favor due to her realistic and impassioned verse that looked head on at the major social woes of society Moreover her work and appearances alongside the likes of Margaret Sanger Emma Goldman Will Durant and other socialists and radicals put her in the line of fire not only of the police and government but also the literary pundits who criticized her activism as being excessive and melodramatic This lively portrait gives a veritable who s who of all the key players in the arts literature and radical politics of the time in which Lola Ridge stood front and center Mosaic of Fire Caroline Maun,2013-01-23 Mosaic of Fire examines the personal and artistic interactions of four innovative American modernist women writers Lola Ridge Evelyn Scott Charlotte Wilder and Kay Boyle all active in the Greenwich Village cultural milieu of the first half of the twentieth century Caroline Maun traces the mutually constructive mentoring relationships through which these writers fostered each other s artistic endeavors and highlights the ways in which their lives and works illustrate issues common to women writers of the modernist era The feminist vision of poet activist and editor Lola Ridge led her to form friendships with women writers of considerable talent influencing this circle with the aesthetic and feminist principles outlined in her 1919 lecture Woman and the Creative Will Ridge first encountered the work of Evelyn Scott when she accepted several of Scott s poems for publication in Others and wrote a favorable review of her novel The Narrow House Ridge also took notice of novice writer Kay Boyle shortly after Boyle s arrival in New York hiring Boyle as an assistant at Broom Almost a decade later Scott introduced poet Charlotte Wilder to Ridge inaugurating a sustaining friendship between the two Mosaic of Fire examines how each of these writers was energized by the aesthetic innovations that characterized the modernist period and how each was also attentive to her writing as a method to encourage social change Maun maps the ebb and flow of their friendships and careers documenting the sometimes unequal nature of support and affection across this group of talented women artists

Contemporary American Literature John Matthews Manly,Edith Rickert,1922 The Poetry of American Women from 1632 to 1945 Emily Stipes Watts,2014-09-10 American women have created an especially vigorous and innovative poetry beginning in 1632 when Anne Bradstreet set aside her needle and picked up her poet s pen The topics of American women poets have been various their images their own and their modes of expression original Emily Stipes Watts does not imply that the work of American men and that of American women are two different kinds of poetry although they have been treated as such in the past It is her aim rather to delineate and define the poetic tradition of women as crucial to the understanding of American poetry as a whole By 1850 American women of all colors religions and social classes were writing and publishing poetry Within the critical category of female poetry developed from 1800 to 1850 these women experimented boldly and prepared the way for the achievement of such women as Emily Dickinson in the second half of the nineteenth century Indeed at times for example from 1860 through 1910 it was women who were at the outer edge of prosodic experimentation and innovation in American poetry Moving chronologically Professor Watts broadly characterizes the state of American poetry for each period citing the dominant male poets she then focuses on women contemporaries singling out and analyzing their best work This volume not only brings to light several important women poets but also represents the discovery of a tradition of women writers This is a unique and invaluable contribution to the history of American literature

The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,Waldo Ralph Browne,Scofield Thayer,Marianne Moore,1921 Book Review Digest,1919 Light in Hand Lola Ridge,2007 Poetry Edited and with an introduction by Daniel Tobin LIGHT IN HAND offers selections from Ridge s first three volumes of poetry that have entered the public domain The Ghetto and Other Poems Sun Up and Other Poems and Red Flag The poems in this volume showcase Ridge s critical yet compassionate eye for the world around her from the Jewish ghetto of the Lower East Side to the bloody frontlines of World War I Rich with finely drawn details of person and place Ridge s poems marry a materialist political sensibility with a deep spiritual belief in the ability of humankind to transcend the world s havoc and strife As Ridge writes in Obliteration of The emptily effacing air That has closed upon so many cries Yet holds in its blue vacuum No bleached white evidence it is often the work of history to bury the cries of the oppressed as well as those who try to speak out against injustice It was Ridge s lifelong mission to counteract this erasure and illuminate that evidence Jean Toomer Barbara Foley,2014-07-15 The 1923 publication of Cane established Jean Toomer as a modernist master and one of the key literary figures of the emerging Harlem Renaissance Though critics and biographers alike have praised his artistic experimentation and unflinching eyewitness portraits of Jim Crow violence few seem to recognize how much Toomer s interest in class struggle catalyzed by the Russian Revolution and the post World War One radical upsurge situate his masterwork in its immediate historical context In Jean Toomer Race Repression and Revolution Barbara Foley explores Toomer s political and intellectual connections with socialism the New Negro movement and the project of Young America Examining his rarely scrutinized early creative and journalistic writings as well as unpublished versions of his autobiography she recreates the complex and contradictory consciousness that produced Cane Foley s discussion of political repression runs parallel with a portrait of repression on a personal level Examining family secrets heretofore unexplored in Toomer scholarship she traces their sporadic surfacing in Cane Toomer s text she argues exhibits a political unconscious that is at once public and private The Weird Sister Collection Marisa Crawford,2024-02-13 Collecting the best of the underground blog Weird Sister these unapologetic and insightful essays link contemporary feminism to literature and pop culture Launched in 2014 Weird Sister proudly staked out a corner of the internet where feminist writers could engage with the literary and popular culture that excited or enraged them The blog made space amid book websites dominated by white male editors and contributors and also committed to covering literary topics in depth when larger feminist outlets rarely could Throughout its decade long run Weird Sister served as an early platform for some of contemporary literature s most striking voices naming itself a website that speaks its mind and snaps its gum and doesn t apologize Edited by founder Marisa Crawford The Weird Sister Collection brings together the work of longtime contributors such as Morgan Parker Christopher Soto Soleil Ho Juli n Delgado Lopera Virgie Tovar Jennif f er Tamayo and more alongside new original essays Offering nuanced insight into contemporary and historical literature in conversation with real life and timely social issues these pieces mark a transitional and transformative moment in online and feminist writing

The Letters of Jean Toomer, 1919-1924 Jean Toomer, 2006 Mark Whalen s compilation offers a vital document for understanding the contexts intellectual debates and tensions undergirding Toomer s work including his simultaneous feelings of attraction to and estrangement from rural southern life the influence of technology on race and urban existence in America and the contradictory pulls of folk culture and modernist experimentation The collection also charts the motives underlying Toomer s abandonment of the style that distinguished Cane and his growing fascination with the teachings of the mystic G I Gurdjieff in 1924

BOOK JACKET Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement Jody Cardinal, Deirdre E. Egan-Ryan, Julia Lisella, 2019-03-15 Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement explores the role of social and political engagement by women writers in the development of American modernism Examining a diverse array of genres by both canonical modernists and underrepresented writers this collection uncovers an obscured strain of modernist activism Each chapter provides a detailed cultural and literary analysis revealing the ways in which modernists politically and socially engaged interventions shaped their writing Considering issues such as working class women s advocacy educational reform political radicalism and the global implications for American literary production this book examines the complexity of the relationship between creating art and fostering social change Ultimately this collection redefines the parameters of modernism while also broadening the conception of social engagement to include both readily acknowledged social movements as well as less recognizable forms of advocacy for social change
