Gnome's Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published. It identifies new genres such as the non-book celebrity vehicle as well as giving due recognition to those who against all odds genuinely have something to say. It devotes review space to authors who whilst dominating the bestseller lists are all but ignored by the literary establishment and it does so without the breathless celebration of the popular observed by too many practitioners of cultural studies. It probes the unseen forces that police our literary culture: the literary agents, the cross-media magnates, the PR gigolos. In keeping with the Private Eye tradition, the contributors are anonymous, giving writers the freedom they cannot find in other publications. For Lord Gnome's reviewers, there are no sacred cows, no special favours, no treacly euphemisms. It's messy, dangerous work, but someone has to do it.
