Snapshots And Other Poems:

Snapshots Lee Brenner, 2004-11-22 Poems descriptive satirical ironic and surreal These are Snapshots that will remain in the album of your memories Pictures, and other poems Thomas Ashe, 1865 My Philippine Pictures and Other Poems Luther Parker, 1919 Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Senkov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet's approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities Told in the Seed and Selected Poems Sanora Babb, 2021-07-30 Told in the Seed and Selected Poems offers poems from Sanora Babb's more than sixty years of writing and publishing poetry This new collection adds many of her earliest poems to those of her later years in the original Told in the Seed A new introduction by Carol S Loranger notes that Of all Sanora Babb's writings it is the poetry perhaps that offers the most intimate and unvarnished picture of the woman and the artist In the introduction Loranger weaves together relevant information about Babb's life with the more personal poems to further enhance the reader's appreciation Babb published her first poem at fourteen in the Forgan Eagle and continued to write and publish poetry from the 1920s to the early 1990s She won the Borestone Mountain Poetry Award in 1967 for Told in the Seed and the Gold Medal Award in 1932 for Captive from the Mitre Press Anthology London Having a strong empathy with people and their daily lives an affinity with all in the natural world and the ability to elevate the ordinary into the extraordinary Babb reflects all this in her poetry Her poems quicken with lyricism clarity and a powerful sense of immediacy Domestic Pictures and Tales Margaret Gatty, 1866 Chronicle of the Pulitzer Prizes for Poetry Heinz-D. Fischer, 2010-01-13 Joseph Pulitzer had not originally intended to award a prize for poetry An initiative by the Poetry Society of America provided the initial impetus to establish the prize first awarded in 1922 The supplement volume chronicles the whole history of how the awards for this category developed giving an account based mainly on confidential jury protocols from the Pulitzer Prizes office at New York's Columbia University This volume completes the series The Pulitzer Prize Archive Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual

Drifting with Clouds, Living by Poetry HongSheng Zhang, 2023-04-12 Zhang explores the sociohistorical environment that produced those poets an era of political intrigues geopolitical threats the rise of commodity economy flourishing popular culture and glamorous urban life Poetry was their means of livelihood as they drifted between low positions or as commoners living by procuring favors from the powerful elite The sadness and joys of a life in precarity shaped their thematic and stylistic choices response to contemporary literary trends and choice of poetic models They formed a broad social network that straddled the scholar officials and ordinary townsmen While their poetry reflects the characteristics and concerns of both classes there emerged a shared voice distinctly their own that turned the tide of poetry in the 13th century

Fashioning the Female Subject Sabine Sielke, 1997 Exploring the interrelatedness of the poetry of three American women writers

A Separate Vision Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 The emergence of large numbers of women writers expressing a deliberately female consciousness has marked one of the significant directions of literature in this century A central idea embraced by these writers has been the particular isolation or marginality flet by women In A Separate Vision Deborah Pope focuses on four representative poets Louise Bogan Maxine Kumin Denise Levertov and Adrienne Rich to explore the ways in which women writers treatment of isolation extends our perception of women s experience and our understanding of the alienated human sensibility In the work of these poets Pope identifies four distinct phases of isolation split self and validation These phases represent a progression from negation to affirmation from a sense of powerlessness and severe restriction to one of literal and psychological freedom She shows how the dynamics of this progression have operated in each poet s development with each starting from the negative stance of victimization and moving in varying degrees toward validation But Pope also finds that in each woman s work one phase of isolation is predominant She sees the tension and confessionalism in the poetry of Bogan the earliest of the four as most representative of victimization Kumin s poems on her alienation from familial and social experiences exemplify personalization The split self is manifested most clearly in Levertov whose work shows a woman torn between her social female self and her inner artistic self Rich the most committed feminist of this group si also the strongest exemplar of validation Her recent poems are charged with personality and power and the isolation in her writing is the isolation of those in the forefront of exploration and change This progress toward a positive sense of women s isolation is a significant movement in contemporary poetry

With what Pope describes as their vigorous revisioning of our patterns of human experience women poets are today showing us new ways of understanding and realizing human dignity and worth
