Pictures and Progress explores how during the nineteenth century and the early twentieth prominent African American intellectuals and activists understood photography's power to shape perceptions about race and employed the new medium in their quest for social and political justice They sought both to counter widely circulating racist imagery and to use self representation as a means of empowerment In this collection of essays scholars from various disciplines consider figures including Frederick Douglass Sojourner Truth Ida B Wells Paul Laurence Dunbar and W E B Du Bois as important and innovative theorists and practitioners of photography In addition brief interpretive essays or snapshots highlight and analyze the work of four early African American photographers Featuring more than seventy images Pictures and Progress brings to light the wide ranging practices of early African American photography as well as the effects of photography on racialized thinking Contributors Michael A Chaney Cheryl Finley P Gabrielle Foreman Ginger Hill Leigh Raiford Augusta Rohrbach Ray Sapirstein Suzanne N Schneider Shawn Michelle Smith Laura Wexler Maurice O Wallace Snapshot USA, Pictures

Through the Rearview Mirror Shibani Ghose Chotani, 2018-02-08 An Indian scientist moves his family to America in this debut novel It is September 1967 when Samen Bose his wife Monu and their two children leave India for the distant shores of the United States The family settles in a small town in the Northeast which manages to be much different than Calcutta this sunniness is depicted in heartwarming passages it excels in its portrayal of vivid details And these details are telling While quiet at times this story deftly portrays the countless nuances of the immigrant experience Kirkus Reviews Pictures Through the Rearview Mirror is an album of memorable moments a family experienced while living in a small town in America in the years 1967 1970 The stories portray the familys acquaintance to a new kind of life and a community of unique people they met and lived with They were created from recollections of moments orally narrated from jottings made in journals They were enhanced through fictional characteristics Memory Work Mary E. Triage, 2024-10-23 In the early twentieth century white controlled magazines and Black magazines told very different stories about the dynamics of race sex and power in the United States Memory Work White Ignorance and Black Resistance in Popular Magazines 1900 1910 examines how popular magazines employed rhetorical strategies to remember forget and frame America's racist past White controlled magazines such as the Independent Outlook Arena and McClure's carried stories of southern nostalgia union reconciliation and white purity Relying on willful ignorance to misremember past experiences of suffering these texts severed violent histories from present day policies and often simply remained silent Meanwhile in Black magazines such as the Colored American Magazine and the Voice of the Negro women writers leveraged countermemory Bringing Black women's accomplishments into focus these writers inverted popular white narratives that erased and obscured Black women's experiences including those of sexual violence Mary E. Triebel traces how white and Black magazines often in dialogue with one another differently engaged memory work to either reinforce or upend white supremacy during a period of both Black advancement and white backlash Further the book suggests lines of connection between the construction of public memory in the past to those taking place today across an array of media platforms Popular debates whether appearing in early 1900s magazines or on twenty first century social media sites shape a culture's collective knowledge of what counts as true important and worthy of attention
