

SAINTS

At a young age, he decided to be a priest and no one could change his heart's desire. He was known for humbleness, good manners and had an ability to take risk. He was daring to be different even in the midst of persecution.

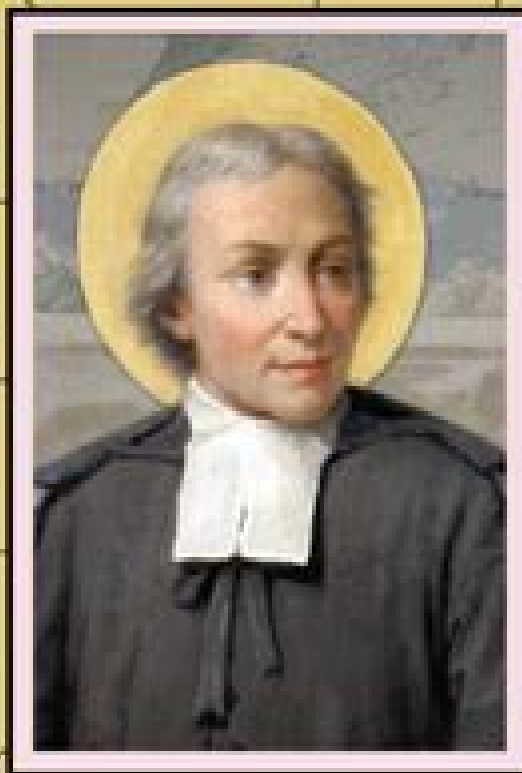

Age 20, his parents died and he had to take care of his 6 younger siblings while studying.

He was very smart and loved learning. He received his doctorate in Theology. Though busy, he had a great interest for prayer and was soon ordained at age 27 in 1678.

While being a priest, his interest grew stronger in helping the poor with their education. Soon he was involved in establishing schools for poor boys.

He had a great Devotion to the Holy Spirit and he was filled with it. That is why many could see him as a Beacon of Education. The Holy Spirit worked so well in him that he could draw many people to his school.

In Reims, France, he was born to Louis de La Salle and Nicolle de Most de Brouillet, a wealthy family on April 30, 1651. He was the eldest child.

He taught education through prayer and he made it very interesting to make students understand. He always sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit that was giving him great inspirations to do great things without losing hope.

He renounced his position as Canon and his riches. Then he formed the community that became known as the Brothers of the Christian Schools. These schools were a new form of religious life, a community of consecrated laymen to conduct gratuitous schools.

He started to have small retreats at his home for teachers and some basic training for teachers. This became a problem and many scandalized the situation.

He soon was worn out by sickness and austerities. He was asked to rest. During this time, he took each day to recall the things he had done and offered his life to Jesus and asking Him for strength to persevere.

On Holy Thursday, he grew worse and could no longer be alive. On Good Friday, April 7, 1719, he entered the Heavenly Kingdom to be with Jesus. He died at age 67 and managed to bring Glory to God through the Education of the Lasallian Schools.
