The Long Walk Home Raymond J. Castellani,2017-02-02 The Long Walk Home will most likely be the last book I write I am eighty three years old this book is important to me it goes over to a degree what has been said in my previous books The End Was A Beginning the first the second The Silent Voice in much more detail it is threaded with the never ending presence of loneliness but more significantly it brings forth the Four Absolutes Honesty Purity Unselfishness Love which were given to me in 1986 I have talked about these principles in my previous books I made clear that if these principles were incorporated in society at hand the world would change in an instant this I believe is the power of these four words the society that exists at present the persistence of selfishness self centeredness permeated with dishonesty beyond reproach the distortion of purity the use of the word love as a panacea to cover the vile of discontent that exists in the world as is lived in every crime every murder every twisted thought every lie every selfish act every thought of hate would be reduced to the pleasantries of memory I cannot predict where society will rest seventy years from now 2016 I do know that in 1927 the world population was two billion 1960 three billion 2011 seven billion projection 2083 ten billion will make up our society if the culture is not changed the present will be a reality for the future this may be a morbid statement it is a true statement for sure society is doing nothing to change the silhouette as is known the simple life is but a dream of realities taken from the books well read by masters of the past what is our destiny
