Review Love LOVE LOVED this absolutely gorgeous page turner An absolute must read Reader Review Battle of Tours
John C. Scott, 2013-05-22 TOURS THE MOST SIGNIFICANT BATTLE IN HISTORY This is not a history book It is not unlikely that this book will get me killed and I would not dismiss the danger to its publishers If you have the courage to print and distribute it there is no doubt that it will be one of the all time best sellers in the world today Tours the largest city in the Centre region of France is the location of what was arguably the most significant battle in human history Here in 732 Charles the Hammer Martel stopped an invading army of sixty thousand Muslims cold Martel slaughtered every one of them and left their unholy bones to rot as a testament to God and all who passed Since the birth of the so called prophet Mohammed in 471 AD the crazed followers of Allah rampaged throughout the Middle East and invaded southern Europe in an attempt to lay waste to all Christian lands murdering pillaging and proselytizing The spread of Islam throughout the Middle East was most certainly by and under the sword The Egyptians were obviously not Arabs or Muslims until the armies of Islam swept into their territories Equally in every country that fell under the murdering hands of the Muslims the people of those countries were subjugated and slaughtered forced to convert or die Indeed no one can argue that Islam is not a diseased cult spread by force staining human history with blood The story I wrote is about Charles Martel and how he came to be there on that fateful day at Tours as the sole defender of the faith and all that stood against the Muslim onslaught that had penetrated so deeply into Europe I argue that had not Martel been able to stop them it is highly likely that today all of us the entire Christian world would have likely been destroyed and forced to convert or die The spires of the minarets would today have been in the thousands throughout Europe and even into the new world It is highly probable that Islam would have retained a dominant position throughout the world just as they do today in all lands that have fallen under their obscene rule With their seeming worship and devotion of and to ignorance human civilization would have been stuck in the past We would have had no modernization no invention and no advancement mankind today would still be living in the dark ages under the cruel eyes of the Mutawas thought police and vicious power hungry Ayatollahs It would be centuries later during the Ottoman Empire that Islam again threatened Europe It is important to note that Martel's victory at Tours and his later campaigns prevented invasion of Europe by the Muslim caliphate Martel preserved and protected Christianity and Western civilization as we know it Gibbons called him the paramount prince of his age A strong argument can be made that Gibbons was entirely correct The book describes the Battle of Tours as if it were happening today it recreates the movements of the armies the difficulties of provisioning such large numbers in those times and looks into the minds of the leaders and soldiers as they fought and died in that historic conflict The book shows us the motivations of the mad Muslims who so desperately wanted to destroy western Christianity and delves into their reasoning then and now Tours is important because it was the first time a western Christian Army had defeated the marauding Muslims and it set the stage for the retaliation that was to follow in the form of the Crusades Both the crusades and the attacks into Europe by the Muslims that preceded them laid the foundations for the humiliation anger and hatred that motivates the attacks on the west by the Jihadists of today The skein of history in those times is thin The book does not rely on diaries and written accounts as one can in more recent battles Will I Live

Tomorrow? Sonia Nassery Cole,2012-10-16 When Sonia Nassery Cole set out to film The Black Tulip in her homeland of Afghanistan she knew the odds were against her she was told time and time again that filming inside a war zone would be impossible What she didn't anticipate was how intent the Taliban and its sympathizers were on halting the film's production the crew encountered extortion government corruption kidnapping attempts and death threats even with around the clock security Her cinematographer fled after two days and many others followed After 9 11 Cole wrote The Black Tulip based on a true story of a real Afghan family The plot was simple After 2001 when the Taliban was routed an Afghan family opened The Poet's Corner a restaurant with an open microphone for all to read poetry perform music and tell their stories But the Taliban didn't approve and the family's new found hope proved fleeting as it struggled to maintain the restaurant and its vibrant way of life Selected as Afghanistan's official submission for the Best Foreign Language Film at the 2010 Academy Awards The Black Tulip is a modern portrait of Afghanistan that captures the plight and resilience of its people Without financial support from a studio or anyone else Cole self-financed the film by mortgaging her home and selling her belongings Then with everything on the line she left for Kabul to make the impossible possible and set out to gather the right people who would risk their lives and willingly be part of the production In Will I Live Tomorrow Cole gives an intimate look into what went on behind the scenes of making a controversial film in the heart of a war ravaged country the looming terror the Taliban creates among Afghans everywhere and the challenges and fear the cast and crew faced every day Will I Live Tomorrow is a memoir about one woman's struggle to make a difference in a violent world Dalton's Undoing RaeAnne
