Sniper on the Ypres Salient Sue Boase, William McCrae, 2022-12-01 Just after midnight on 22 April 1916 on the Western Front a sergeant from the 15th 1st London Royal Welsh Fusiliers came sliding and stumbling along the dark mud filled trench towards the four men huddled together and soaked through in the shallow dugout He was clutching his postbag in which there were four parcels for one of them William McCrae whose twentieth birthday fell on this day A hand written account by William my grandfather was found in my mother's papers long after his death This book describes a year of his time fighting in the First World War from December 1915 to December 1916 Two months after his birthday he was marching towards the Somme where he was to act as a runner during the key Welsh engagement in the Battle of Mametz Wood Later he went on to volunteer and train as a sniper He continued in this role for over a year becoming a lance corporal in the 38th Divisional Sniping Company while fighting on the Ypres Salient His words emphasise the key role snipers played in the collecting of intelligence about the enemy through close observation and careful reporting His account stops abruptly in mid sentence just at the point where he indicates he is about to reveal more to us about a new interesting part of the line to be manned by us Snipers Piecing together clues from his sketches maps and photos and this book paints a picture of Williams time during the rest of the war In 1917 he returned to England to train as a temporary officer in the 18th Officer Cadet Battalion at Prior Park Bath He came back to the Western Front as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Duke of Wellington s West Riding Regiment where he was seconded to the 15 Lancashire Fusiliers until the end of the war During this time it is likely that his interest and experience as a sniper continued with evidence that he may have taught at one of the Sniping Schools set up across France The Kyle Swanson Sniper Series, Books 1-3 Sgt.
