Snowstruck In The Grip Of Avalanches:

Snowstruck Jill Fredston, 2007 Every year around the globe people cross paths with avalanches some massive some no deeper than a pizza box with deadly results Avalanche expert Jill Fredston stalks these so called freaks of nature forecasting where and when they will strike deliberately triggering them with explosives teaching potential victims how to stay alive and leading rescue efforts when tragedy strikes In Snowstruck Fredston draws on decades of personal experience to take avalanches out of the statistical realm and into the human one Skiing Magazine a skier making what may prove his final decision a victim buried so tightly that he can't move a finger rescuers racing both time and weather forecasters treading the line between reasonable risk and danger Fredston brings to life the awesome forces of nature that can turn the mountains deadly and the equally inexorable forces of human nature that lure us time and again into treacherous terrain Avalanches Wendy H. The White Cascade Gary Krist, 2008-01-22 The never before told story of one of the worst rail disasters in U S history in which two trains full of people trapped high in the Cascade Mountains are hit by a devastating avalanche In February 1910 a monstrous blizzard centered on Washington State hit the Northwest breaking records The world stopped but nowhere was the danger more terrifying than near a tiny town called Wellington perched high in the Cascade Mountains where a desperate situation evolved minute by minute two trainloads of cold hungry passengers and their crews found themselves marooned without
