Sleepwalk Other Stories:

Sleepwalk Adrian Tomine, 2022-06-27 Collecting the first four issues of Adrian Tomine's acclaimed comic series Optic Nerve this book offers sixteen concise haunting tales of modern life. The characters here appear to be well adjusted on the surface but Tomine takes us deeper into their lives subtly examining their struggle to connect with friends and lovers.

Sleepwalk Adrian Tomine, 2004-06 Worth reading just for Tomine's eloquent restraint and literary leanings. The Boston Phoenix A Visit to Priapus and Other Stories Glenway Wescott, 2013-11-29 Just as E. M. Forster's novel of gay love Maurice remained unpublished throughout his lifetime, Glenway Wescott's long story A Visit to Priapus was also destined to be a posthumous work, buried from 1938 until this century in Wescott's massive archive of manuscripts, journals, notebooks, and letters. The autobiographical story is about a literary man frustrated in love who puts aside his pride and makes a date with a young artist in Maine. Lavishly rendered in Wescott's elegant prose, the tale is explicit where it needs to be but as is typical of Wescott, it is filled with descriptive beauty and introspective lessons about sex and sexuality, love and creativity. Previously published in anthology form in the United Kingdom, A Visit to Priapus is presented for the first time in book form in America, containing previously uncollected stories including three never before published. The result is a candid portrayal of the gifted but enigmatic writer who was famous in youth and remained a perceptive and compassionate voice throughout his long life. Drawn together from midcentury literary journals and magazines of the 1920s and 1930s as well as from Wescott's papers, the stories were inspired by his life from childhood to old age, from Wisconsin farm country to New York, London, Germany, and Paris. Finalist, Gay General Fiction, Lambda Literary Awards. Sleepwalk, 2003-04 Sleepwalking Taylin Clavelli, 2014-11-18 Devastated by loss, Matthew sleepwalks through life existing but not living. Can someone rescue him from his waking nightmare and help him to live again? Starlings & Other Stories Ann Cleeves, 2015-09-07 Twelve pictures, twelve tales of crime and mystery. Written by Murder Squad and their six accomplices, these page-turning stories uncover a world of intrigue, suspense, and fear. With contributions from celebrated crime writers including Ann Cleeves and Martin Edwards, each tale is inspired by the atmospheric and evocative Pembrokeshire collection of photographer David Wilson.

have been reduced to errands car pools and suburban gossip What was an easy decision for Sam years ago has become a nagging awareness that this life was her choice Now she deals with a husband who shows up for dinner but is too preoccupied for conversation and a daughter swathed in black clothing and Goth makeup who won t talk at all Believing she s an adopted mistake seventeen year old Cammy has fallen into sex and drugs and pours herself into a journal filled with poetry and pain On parallel paths mother and daughter indulge in desperate furtive escapism for Sam a heady affair with her supposed soul mate fueled by clandestine coffee dates and the desire to feel something for Cammy a secretive search for her birth mother punctuated by pills pot and the need to feel absolutely nothing

The Cambridge Companion to the American Graphic Novel Jan Baetens,Hugo Frey,Fabrice Leroy,2023-09-28 The Cambridge Companion to the American Graphic Novel explores the important role of the graphic novel in reflecting American society and in the shaping of the American imagination Using key examples this volume reviews the historical development of various subgenres within the graphic novel tradition and examines how graphic novelists have created multiple and different accounts of the American experience including that of African American Asian American Jewish Latinx and LGBTQ communities Reading the American graphic novel opens a debate on how major works have changed the idea of America from that once found in the quintessential action or superhero comics to show new different intimate accounts of historical change as well as social and individual personal experience It guides readers through the theoretical text image scholarship to explain the meaning of the complex borderlines between graphic novels comics newspaper strips caricature literature and art

Drawing New Color Lines Monica Chiu,2014-11-01 The global circulation of comics manga and other such visual mediums between North America and Asia produces transnational meanings no longer rooted in a separation between Asian and American Drawing New Color Lines explores the culture production and history of contemporary graphic narratives that depict Asian Americans and Asians It examines how Japanese manga and Asian popular culture have influenced Asian American comics how these comics and Asian American graphic narratives depict the look of race and how these various representations are interpreted in nations not of their production By focusing on what graphic narratives mean for audiences in North America and those in Asia the collection discusses how Western theories about the ways in which graphic narratives might successfully overturn derogatory caricatures are themselves based on contested assumptions and illustrates that the so called odorless images featured in Japanese manga might nevertheless elicit interpretations about race in transnational contexts With contributions from experts based in North America and Asia Drawing New Color Lines will be of interest to scholars in a variety of disciplines including Asian American studies cultural and literary studies comics and visual studies Drawing New Color Lines makes an exciting contribution to the rapidly expanding inquiry at the crossroads of Asian American literary studies graphic narrative studies and transnational studies Foregrounding the shifting meanings of race within across and between various national contexts the fifteen essays in Chiu s collection explore the visual dimensions of Asian American transnational literary culture with originality and offer particular insight into the complexities of production interpretation and reception for graphic narrative Pamela Thoma author of Asian American Women's Popular Literature Feminizing Genres and Neoliberal Belonging An informative smart and necessary collection Drawing New Color Lines investigates a growing and important field transnational Asian American comics with sophistication and breadth Hillary Chute author of Graphic Women Life Narrative and Contemporary Comics and Outside the Box Interviews with Contemporary Cartoonists What Happens When Nothing Happens Greice Schneider, 2016-06-30 Boredom and melancholy in the experience of reading Contemporary graphic novels show an interesting shift from the extraordinary to the ordinary in slice of life stories in which nothing happens Present day graphic accounts are inhabited by melancholic characters whining about the lack of meaning in life This book examines this intriguing transition and brings a historical aesthetical and narratological approach to comics in which boredom is not only a topic but also awakens a deliberate affective response in the very experience of reading This volume brings together close readings of work by Lewis Trondheim Chris Ware and Adrian Tomine With a foreword by Raphael Baroni University of Lausanne

The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories Kevin W. Sweeney, 2016-05-16 The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories Stories of Bad Faith presents a philosophical analysis of all five stories in Sartre's short story collection Kevin W Sweeney argues that each of the five stories has its own philosophical idea or problem that serves as the context for the narrative Sartre constructs each story as a reply to the philosophical issue in the context and as support for his position on that issue In the opening story The Wall Sartre uses the Constant Kant debate to support his view that the story's protagonist is responsible for his ally's death The Room presents in narrative form Sartre's criticism that the Freudian Censor is acting in bad faith In Erostratus Sartre opposes Descartes's claim in his hats and coats example that we recognize the humanity of others by using our reason In Intimacy Sartre again opposes a Cartesian position this time the view that our feelings reveal our emotions Sartre counters that Cartesian view by showing that the two women in the story act in bad faith because they do not distinguish their feelings from their emotions The last story The Childhood of a Leader shows how the protagonist acts in bad faith in trying to resolve the question of who he is by appealing to the view that one's roots in nature can provide one with a substantial identity The stories are unified by showing the characters in all five narratives engaged in different acts of bad faith *The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories* is written for scholars interested in Jean Paul Sartre's early literary and philosophical work as well as for students interested in Sartre and twentieth century French literature
