

Remembering

lives lost to suicide

Gather in the heart of Adelaide to remember and honour the precious lives lost to suicide.

Wesley LifeForce Suicide Memorial Service
Adelaide Convention Centre - Regattas
Monday 29 April 2024
12.30 - 1.30pm

If you've been impacted by the loss of a loved one to suicide, join a supportive community who share the experience of bereavement. Counsellors will be present to offer support.

Reflect over music, stories of lived experience and hope and laying of sunflowers. Bring a photo and share a personal tribute on our memorial wall.

Everyone is welcome.

Sign up for event reminders or join us on the day.

Suicide Wall

Alexander Paul

Suicide Wall:

Suicide Wall Alexander Paul, 1996-01-01 Blue Wall of Silence Olivia N. Johnson, 2010-04-26 Suicide has been declared an epidemic and rates of suicide increase within occupational subcultures experiencing increased levels of stress and trauma such as law enforcement Explored in the qualitative phenomenological study were the lived experiences of White male law enforcement officers concerning perceptions of care by administrators and peers and the influence of mental health training in the incidence of officer suicide The study population was chosen because of the resemblance to the segment of the general population deemed at risk for suicide Officers provided perceptions of care in dealing with difficult situations police culture police training and police suicide Interviews allowed officers to reveal perceptions and beliefs about the affects of training on perceptions of care and on the incidence of officer suicide Officer interviews revealed five major themes and two minor themes Major themes included stress stress relief trust loyalty training and change Minor themes included generational issues and organizational administration The largest stressor for the study population included crimes and incidents against children The results of the study can help further educate administrators and officers about the emotional dangers facing law enforcement officers and the importance of organizational administration in assisting officers in acknowledging and overcoming issues concerning mental health Against the Wall Elijah Anderson, 2011-12-30 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Typically residing in areas of concentrated urban poverty too many young black men are trapped in a horrific cycle that includes active discrimination unemployment violence crime prison and early death This toxic mixture has given rise to wider stereotypes that limit the social capital of all young black males Edited and with an introductory chapter by sociologist Elijah Anderson the essays in Against the Wall describe how the young black man has come to be identified publicly with crime and violence In reaction to his sense of rejection he may place an exaggerated emphasis on the integrity of his self expression in clothing and demeanor by adopting the fashions of the street To those deeply invested in and associated with the dominant culture his attitude is perceived as profoundly oppositional His presence in public gathering places becomes disturbing to others and the stereotype of the dangerous young black male is perpetuated and strengthened To understand the origin of the problem and the prospects of the black inner city male it is essential to distinguish his experience from that of his pre Civil Rights Movement forebears In the 1950s as militant black people increasingly emerged to challenge the system the figure of the black male became more ambiguous and fearsome And while this activism did have the positive effect of creating opportunities for the black middle class who fled from the ghettos those who remained faced an increasingly desperate climate Featuring a foreword by Cornel West and sixteen original essays by contributors including William Julius Wilson Gerald D Jaynes Douglas S Massey and Peter Edelman Against the Wall illustrates how social distance increases as alienation and marginalization within the black male underclass persist thereby deepening the country s racial divide Thirty Years After the Berlin Wall Ayline Heller, Peter Schmidt, 2024-03-29 This book examines the increasing body of research dedicated to the lasting differences between the former separate states of the Federal German Republic FRG and the German Democratic Republic GDR Thirty years after the fall of the Berlin Wall it takes a broad view on German unification and transformation research Transformation and unification processes in East and West Germany are still ongoing and they may serve as a model for social change and its political economic and psychological consequences Using advanced statistical methods of analysis this edited volume provides insights into the valuable contextualization of individual and social phenomena that current research on German unification and transformation is producing Following the open science mindset using code and data the authors investigate temporal trends in 1 mental health 2 political attitudes and 3 work and family life It explores changes in mental health and political attitudes as well as continued differences in work and family arrangements that may stem from heterogeneous experiences within the systems and during the transformation process This book will appeal to scholars and students from the disciplines of sociology political science public health social psychology psychology and communication science interested in postsocialist transition processes and temporal changes in individuals and societies
