Sujet Et Verite Dans Le Monde Socialhistorique:

Sujet et vérité dans le monde social-historique Cornelius Castoriadis, 2002 Truth and Historicity / Vérité et Historicité Hans-Georg Gadamer, 2012-12-06 Symposium in Heidelberg Entretiens de Heidelberg 12 16 September septembre 1969 Law and Disorder in the Postcolony Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2008-09-15 Are postcolonies haunted more by criminal violence than other nation states The usual answer is yes In Law and Disorder in the Postcolony Jean and John Comaroff and a group of respected theorists show that the question is misplaced that the predicament of postcolonies arises from their place in a world order dominated by new modes of governance new sorts of empires new species of wealth an order that criminalizes poverty and race entraps the south in relations of corruption and displaces politics into the realms of the market criminal economies and the courts As these essays make plain however there is another side to postcoloniality while postcolonies live in states of endemic disorder many of them fetishize the law its ways and its means How is the coincidence of disorder with a fixation on legalities to be explained Law and Disorder in the Postcolony addresses this question entering into critical dialogue with such theorists as Benjamin Agamben and Bayart In the process it also demonstrates how postcolonies have become crucial sites for the production of contemporary theory not least because they are harbingers of a global future under construction Imaginaire et création historique Philippe Caumières, Sophie Klimis, Laurent Van Eynde, 2006 Selon Castoriadis l'histoire est création ce qui veut dire position de nouvelles formes et figures de nouvelles significations c'est dire auto institution Ce que Castoriadis nomme imaginaire social est une puissance de création l'œuvre dans l'histoire Chaque société s'auto institue par la création d'un monde propre irréductible l'effectuation de possibles pr d termin s Affirmation qui conduit refuser toute continuité immanente l'évolution historique et même toute relecture a posteriori de la pr curs ion d'une époque par une autre Cette position est elle tenable pour les sciences humaines comme pour la philosophie de l'histoire Le souci de saisir la nouveauté ne conduit il pas Castoriadis un certain irrationalisme

Les carrefours du temps. Temporalités et histoire dans l'œuvre de Cornelius Castoriadis Stéphane Vibert, 2021-03-22T20:00:00-04:00 Principalement connu pour ses concepts de démocratie directe et d'imaginaire social Cornelius Castoriadis est plus rarement convoqué titre de philosophe Il a pourtant adossé sa théorie sociale et politique une lecture critique de la tradition philosophique et développé partir d'elle un concept singulier de création qu'il définit comme l'émergence de formes ontologiques irréductibles travers le temps Pour Castoriadis la défense de l'autonomie nécessitait une refondation de la philosophie partir d'une compréhension neuve du temps et d'une pluralisation des formes de la temporalité Ce livre explore la philosophie du temps de Castoriadis comprise comme l'un des foyers principaux de son rapport à la pensée Les contributions de ce volume qui s'ouvre sur une appréciation comparative de son concept de temps objectif s'articulent ensuite autour de trois enjeux où se déploie la réflexion castoriadienne sur le temps la théorie démocratique la conception du sujet et la philosophie de l'histoire Elles permettent chacune sa manière d'évaluer la portée d'une intellection

Democracy and Relativism Cornelius Castoriadis,2019-11-07 In this vibrant debate with intellectuals influenced by Marcel Mauss including Alain Caill and Chantal Mouffe the incisive Greek French activist and philosopher Cornelius Castoriadis addresses the challenge of critical thinking in an international context The first half explores the tradition of radical self critique and the prospect of affirming its value in a non ethnocentric way While defending ancient Greek contributions to the Western tradition of radical self critique including the practice of relativizing one s own culture of engaging in philosophical interrogation and of establishing democratic institutions Castoriadis is challenged to explore the trans contextual features of any self critical or autonomous social institution In the second half Castoriadis offers a penetrating critique of representative democracy and the discussion makes important strides toward a new conception of direct democracy of political education and of the institutional prerequisites for the continuation of radical self critique in politics and philosophy

After the Deluge Fran ois Dosse,2004-11-17 Madame de Pompadour s famous quip Apr s nous le deluge serves as fitting inspiration for this lively discussion of postwar French intellectual and cultural life Over the past thirty years North American and European scholarship has been significantly transformed by the absorption of poststructuralist and postmodernist theories from French thinkers But Julian Bourg s seamlessly edited volume proves that historically speaking French intellecutal and cultural life since World War Two has involved much more than a few infamous figures and concepts Motivated by a desire to narrate and contextualize the deluge of French theory After the Deluge showcases recent work by today s brightest scholars of French intellectual history that historicizes key debates figures and turning points in the postwar era of French thought Relying on primary and archival sources contributors examine among other themes left wing critiques of the Left the internationalizing of thought the institutional and affective conditions of cultural life and the religious imagination They revive neglected debates and figures and they explore the larger impact of political quarrels In an afterword preeminent French historian Fran ois Dosse heralds the arrival of a new generation a historiographical sensibility that brings fresh original perspectives and a passion for French history to the contemporary French intellectual arena After the Deluge adds significant depth and breadth to our understanding of postwar French intellectual and cultural history

Constitutionalising Secession David Haljan,2014-11-01 Constitutionalising Secession proceeds from the question What if anything does the law have to say about a secession crisis But rather than approaching secession through the optic of political or nationalist institutional accommodation this book focuses on the underpinnings to a constitutional order as a law making community underpinnings laid bare by secession pressures Relying on the corrosive effects of secession it explores the deep structure of a constitutional order and the motive forces creating and sustaining that order A core idea is that the normativity of law is best understood through a constitutional optic as an integrative associative force Constitutionalising Secession critically analyses conceptions of constitutional order implicit in the leading models of secession and takes as a leading case study the judicial and legislative response to secession in Canada The book therefore develops a concept of constitutionalism and law making associative constitutionalism to describe their deep structure as a continuing integrative process of association This model of a dynamic process of value formation can address both the association and the disassociation of constitutional systems A Past of Possibilities Quentin Deluermoz, Pierre Singaravelou, 2021-10-12 An exploration of hypothetical turning points in history from Ancient Greece to September 11 What if history as we know it had run another course Touching on alternate histories of the future and the past or uchronias A Past of Possibilities encourages deeper consideration of watershed moments in the course of history Wide ranging in scope it examines the Boxer Rebellion in China the 1848 revolution in France and the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914 and integrates science fiction history historiography sociology anthropology and film In probing the genre of literature and history that is fascinated with hypotheticals surrounding key points in history Quentin Deluermoz and Pierre Singaravelou reach beyond a mere reimagining of history exploring the limits and potentials of the futures past From the most bizarre fiction to serious scientific hypothesis they provide a survey of the uses of counterfactual histories methodological issues on the possible in Social Sciences and practical proposals for using alternate histories in research and the wider public

Thinking Radical Democracy Martin Breugh, Christopher Holman, Rachel Magnusson, Paul Mazzocchi, Devin Penner, 2015-02-26 Thinking Radical Democracy is an introduction to nine key political thinkers who contributed to the emergence of radical democratic thought in post war French political theory Hannah Arendt Maurice Merleau Ponty Pierre Clastres Claude Lefort Cornelius Castoriadis Guy Debord Jacques Rancière Étienne Balibar and Miguel Abensour The essays in this collection connect these writers through their shared contribution to the idea that division and difference in politics can be perceived as productive creative and fundamentally democratic The questions they raise regarding equality and emancipation in a democratic society will be of interest to those studying social and political thought or democratic activist movements like the Occupy movements and Idle No More
