The Final Solution A Novel For The End Of Days:

The Final Solution R. F. Dietrich, 2000-10 The terrorist bombs and guns going off in our world along with practically every bit of political violence of the last forty years starting with the assassination of President Kennedy are part of a single man's demented plot to save the world through terror and a climactic apocalyptic act of sacrifice that will make the crucifixion of Christ look insignificant Or so we are told by Wolf Berlin who has accidentally uncovered the mad plot on the Net Who is Wolf Berlin He is a man who has always wanted to found a new religion and who now is tempted by the mad genius a long lost old friend to be the Peter and Paul of what looks to be a very effective religion of the future one that will bring the global peace Wolf so hungers for After the dust settles that is Whether Wolf agrees to it or not the Apocalypse is scheduled for the near future Wolf struggles with his decision to either try to stop the mad plot or join it as the Doomsday clock ticks on

The End of Days, 2007 Offering context for the wide variety of historical and contemporary Christian beliefs about the end times and incorporating writings from Augustine and other Church Fathers guides you through the fascinating intricate world of apocalyptic literature

Urban Futures Tim Hall, Malcolm Miles, 2004-11-23 Urban Futures brings together commentaries from a wide range of contemporary disciplines and fields relevant to urban culture form and society The book concerns cities in the broadest sense not just as buildings and spaces but also as processes and events or sites of occupation in which meanings are constructed in many ways The contributors draw on their specialist areas of research to inform current debate but they also speculate as to how cities will be shaped in the 21st century Specific areas of research include homeless people's organisations and restoration ecology in brownfield sites in the USA post industrial urban landscapes post industrial economics tourism and cultural planning The book allows each writer to state their own conclusions but together they suggest that tomorrow's cities will while remaining locations of difference and contestation be rapidly evolving systems in which dwellers assume increasing responsibilities and power

Animal Alterity Sherryl Vint, 2010-01-01 Animal Alterity uses readings of science fiction texts to explore how animals are central to our perception of humanity Arguing that the academic field of animal studies and the popular genre of science fiction share a number of critical concerns Sherryl Vint expresses an urgent need to reconsider the human animal boundary in a world of genetic engineering factory farming species extinctions and increasing evidence of animal intelligence emotions and tool use Mapping the complex terrain of human relations with non human animals this book offers an important intervention into the contentious ongoing discussions of the post human

In the Shadow of Partition Nalini Iyer, Debali

Mookerjea-Leonard, 2024-12-02 This book brings together conversations about the Partition and its haunting residues in the present as represented in literary visual oral and material cultures of the subcontinent and beyond The seventy fifth anniversary of Partition confronts scholars with significantly new subjects for reflection The question of historical memory has now largely transformed to one of its reproductions through mass politics and mass media and perhaps professional academic inquiry while the very meaning or value of Independence is in crisis This edited volume includes chapters on representations of partition experiences and the re drawing of the subcontinent s political map While the impact of the partition of the Punjab has been the focus of much scholarly studies in the past and Bengal to a smaller extent this collection extends the examination of the impact of this political event elsewhere in other communities in the subcontinent and across other differentials This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Indian history Partition studies literature popular culture and performance postcolonial studies and South Asian studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian Review

Foregone Conclusions Michael André

Bernstein, 2024-06-04 We are continually trying to make sense of our world through the stories we tell and are told but in our search for coherence we often sacrifice our freedom and the rich randomness of life In this passionate and lucid book Michael Andr Bernstein challenges our practice of foreshadowing in which we see our lives as moving toward a predetermined goal or as controlled by fate Foreshadowing he argues demeans the variety and openness that exist in even the most ordinary moments of life And it is precisely ordinary life with its random haphazard and contradictory choices that Bernstein celebrates in his call for sideshadowing an alternative practice that reminds us that every present is dense with possible futures Bernstein sees the Holocaust as the prime example of how our tendency to foreshadow and backshadow misrepresents history He argues eloquently against politicians and theologians who posit the Holocaust as foreordained and who depict its victims as somehow complicit with a fate that they should have been able to foresee Instead Bernstein proposes a radically new understanding of the relationship between the Holocaust and earlier Jewish experience transforming how we read and write both individual and communal history Foregone Conclusions is an extraordinarily wide ranging book both in its scope and in its broader intellectual and moral implications From the latest biographies of Kafka to the peace accords between Israel and the PLO from the role of cultural diversity in universities to the Crown Heights riots Bernstein warns us against passively accepting our identities as being shaped primarily by historical or personal victimization His book liberates us from stereotyped patterns of understanding the relationship between our lives as individuals and as members of racial sexual and historic ethnic communities Bernstein ultimately opens a powerful new way to understand the principles governing how we read and write narratives whether historical personal or literary In striking original juxtapositions and critical evaluations of Marcel Proust Robert Musil and Aharon Appelfeld Bernstein suggests the need for a new literary model based on the prosaics of daily life Bernstein speaks directly and persuasively to many of the most pressing issues in Jewish history Holocaust studies literary criticism and cultural history Foregone Conclusions is a provocative and poignant attempt to find coherence in our world without accepting either ineluctable destiny of pure coincidence This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity
