the implementation of the Final Solution demonstrates how the Germans coordinated anti Jewish activities in conquered territories and sheds light on the victims in concentration camps ending with the liberation of the concentration camp victims and articles on the trials of war criminals The publications covered originate from the years 1950 to 1987 Included are authors such as Jakob Katz Saul Friedländer Eberhard Jäckel Bruno Bettelheim and Herbert A Strauss The Extermination of the European Jews Christian Gerlach, 2016-03-14 This major reinterpretation of the Holocaust surveys the destruction of the European Jews within the broader context of Nazi violence against other victim groups Christian Gerlach offers a unique social history of mass violence which reveals why particular groups were persecuted and what it was that connected the fate of these groups and the policies against them He explores the diverse ideological political and economic motivations which lay behind the murder of the Jews and charts the changing dynamics of persecution during the course of the war The book brings together both German actions and those of non German states and societies shedding new light on the different groups and vested interests involved and their role in the persecution of non Jews as well Ranging across continental Europe it reveals that popular notions of race were often more important in shaping persecution than scientific racism or Nazi dogma

The Jews of Italy, 1938-1945 Charles T. O'Reilly, 2007-07-03 The author demonstrates that the Italian Army deserves attention for its often humanitarian treatment of Italian Jews and other Jews He also analyzes revisionist histories of Pope Pius XII and his alleged silence arguing that revisionists were writing for a popular audience interested in sensation and scandal and that this profitable trail attracted journalists and historians alike Focusing primarily on the roles played by the Vatican and the Royal Italian Army this book also provides an overview of the travail of Italy's Jewish community from the beginning of Mussolini's anti Semitic policies in the late 1930s through the end of the German occupation in May 1945

Hiebert, 2017-03-16 This book addresses two closely related questions what is the process by which the relatively short and violent genocides of the twentieth century and beyond have occurred Why have these instances of mass violence been genocidal and not some other form of state violence repression or conflict Hiebert answers these questions by exploring the structures and processes that underpin the decision by political elites to commit genocide focusing on a sustained comparison of two cases the Nazi Final Solution and the Cambodian genocide The book clearly differentiates the structures and processes contained within a larger overall process that leads to genocidal violence Uncovering the mechanisms by which societies at least in the contemporary era come to experience genocide as a distinct form of destruction and not some other form of mass or political violence Hiebert is able to highlight a set of key process that lead to specifically genocidal violence Providing an insightful contribution to the burgeoning literature in this area this book will be of interest to students and scholars of genocide international relations and political violence
