The First Cistercian Spiritual Writers:

The First Cistercian Spiritual Writers Marie-André Fracheboud, M. Andre Fracheboud, 2000 Cistercian Fathers and Forefathers Thomas Merton, 2018-09-15 This volume of previously uncollected studies makes a notable contribution to Merton's extensive and influential legacy This volume includes pieces on eleventh and twelfth century monastics by Thomas Merton perhaps the most significant American Catholic spiritual writer of the twentieth century The essays are difficult to locate elsewhere the conference transcriptions are available only here Spiritual Writers of the Middle Ages Gerard Sitwell, 1961 From the eleventh to the sixteenth centuries essentially the great age of monasticism much thought was given to developing a ground plan by which the monk or friar could reach contemplation and mystical union with God Basically the writers of the age saw a fourfold division of this ground plan reading meditation prayer and contemplation While the basic ideas of spirituality were generally accepted by all writers there were divergent teachings The author here traces the main trends of these varied teachings from Benedictine spirituality of the eleventh century through the ideas of the new orders the Cistercians the Franciscans and the Dominicans down to the fifteenth century writings of Thomas Kempis whose Imitation of Christ is still one of the best known and most loved spiritual guides The author also deals at length with the writings of St Bernard of Clairvaux the major spiritual theologian of the Middle Ages Handbook of Spirituality for Ministers Robert J. Wicks, 1995 An applied spirituality handbook that covers an array of topics relevant to professionals daily work in pastoral care Medieval Spiritual Writers Gerard Sitwell, 1961 The Middle Ages from about 1000 to the eve of the Renaissance in the late fifteenth century witnessed a great flowering of the spiritual life The author provides a guide to the different movements and trends among writers on the spiritual science during this period Beginning with a discussion of their antecedents in Egyptian monasticism the writings of Cassian and the Rule of St Benedict he goes on to analyze the contemplative spirituality developed by monastic writers from John of F camp through St Bernard and William of St Thierry and the German nuns such as St Gertrude and St Mechtilde to the new trends which become discernible in Dominican and Franciscan spirituality The mystical movement of the fourteenth century and the growth of speculative contemplation are examined as they appear in the works of the Rhineland mystics and the English group represented by Richard Rolle Walter Hilton Julian of Norwich and the author of The Cloud of the Unknowing A final chapter discusses the Imitation of Christ the other writings of Thomas Kempis Gerson and Denis the Carthusian and the emergence of spiritual exercises in Mauburnus and Garcia de Cisneros Back cover Human Dignity in the Judaeo-Christian Tradition John Loughlin, 2019-07-11 Dignity is a fundamental aspect of our lives yet one we rarely pause to consider our understandings of dignity on individual collective and philosophical perspectives shape how we think act and relate to others This book offers an historical survey of how dignity has been understood and explores the concept in the Judaeo Christian tradition World renowned contributors examine the roots of human dignity in classical Greece and Rome and the Scriptures as well as in the work of theologians such as St Thomas Aquinas and St John Paul II Further chapters consider dignity within Renaissance art and sacred music The volume shows that dignity is also a contemporary issue by analysing situations where the traditional understanding has been challenged by philosophical and policy developments To this end further essays look at the role of dignity in discussions about transhumanism religious freedom robotics and medicine Grounded in the principal Christian traditions of Catholicism Orthodoxy Anglicanism and Protestantism this book offers an interdisciplinary and cross period approach to a timely topic It validates the notion of human dignity and offers an introduction to the field while also challenging it Cistercian

Mysticism Aage Rydstrøm-Poulsen, Daniel Marcel La Corte, Rose Marie Tillisch, 2025-05-05 Since mysticism deals with the ultimate ideals and purposes of human existence it is one of the most significant phenomena in Western cultural history Mysticism had a significant role in the medieval monastic environment and along with many other things had a profound impact on Western intellectual culture The history of mysticism in the West is a history of the greatest and most significant aspirations and potentialities of the individual regarding the understanding of oneself and the divine Cistercian Mysticism is an outstanding example The anthology's chapters explore key aspects of Cistercian spirituality including William of Saint Thierry's visio Dei the vision of God a transformative encounter with the divine that is central to his mysticism as well as the concept of sensus amoris Cistercian Mysticism also explores Bernard of Clairvaux's writings on the Song of Songs and the relation between contemplation and action demonstrating how action service and contemplative love can coexist Tradition is further enhanced by Aelred of Rievaulx's thoughts on spiritual friendship which highlight how human relationships based on love and introspection mirror the soul's path toward divine union By examining the writings of these influential figures this volume offers a way to comprehend the close connection between the divine and the human soul highlighting the importance of their contributions to the mystical and theological landscape of the Middle Ages A book which will undoubtedly be highly enjoyed by scholars and students of all ages and religious communities Reluctant Saint Donald Spoto, 2003-09-30

Acclaimed biographer Donald Spoto strips away the legends from the life of Francis of Assisi to reveal the true story of a man who has too often been obscured by pious iconography Drawing on unprecedented access to unexplored archives plus Francis's own letters Spoto places Francis within the context of the multifaceted ecclesiastical political and social forces of medieval Italy casting new light on Francis and showing how his emphasis on charity as the heart of the Gospel's message helped him pioneer a new social movement This nuanced portrait reveals the multifaceted character of a man who can genuinely be said to have changed the course of history Showings Julian (of Norwich), 1978 In the light of their thirteen years of work on the critical edition of Showings Colledge and Walsh give us this first modern English rendering from their critical text Crusading Spirituality in the Holy Land and Iberia, C.1095-c.1187 William J. Purkis, 2008 Argues for a new context for the origins and development of crusading as an imitation of Christ For much of the twelfth century the ideals and activities of crusaders were often described in language more normally associated with a monastic rather than a military vocation like those who took religious vows crusaders were repeatedly depicted as being driven by a desire to imitate Christ and to live according to the values of the primitive Church This book argues that the significance of these descriptions has yet to be fully appreciated and suggests that the origins and early development of crusading should be studied within the context of the reformation of professed religious life in the twelfth century whose leading figures such as St Bernard of Clairvaux advocated the pursuit of devotional undertakings modelled on the lives of Christ and his apostles It also considers topics such as the importance of pilgrimage to early crusading ideology and the relationship between the spirituality of crusading and the activities of the Military Orders offering a revisionist assessment of how crusading ideas adapted and evolved when introduced to the Iberian peninsula in c 1120 In so doing the book situates crusading within a broader context of changes in the religious culture of the medieval West Dr WILLIAM PURKIS is Senior Lecturer in Medieval History at the University of Birmingham
