The First Stone A Memoir Of The Racial Integration Of Levittown Pennsylvania:

The First Stone Lewis Wechsler, 2004 Levittown David Kushner, 2022-03-08 The explosive true story of the first African American family to move into one of America's most iconic suburbs Levittown Pennsylvania In the decade after World War II one entrepreneurial family helped thousands of people buy into the American dream of owning a home not just any home but a good one with all the modern conveniences The Levitts two brothers William and Alfred and their father Abe pooled their talents in land use architecture and sales to create story book town with affordable little houses They laid out the welcome mat but not to everyone Levittown had a whites only policy This is the story that unfolded in Levittown PA one unseasonably hot summer in 1957 on a quiet street called Deepgreen Lane There a white Jewish Communist family named Wechsler secretly arranged for a black family the Myers to buy the little pink house next door What followed was an explosive summer of violence that would transform their lives and the nation It would lead to the downfall of a titan and the integration of the most famous suburb in the world It's a story of hope and fear invention and rebellion and the power that comes when ordinary people take an extraordinary stand Sweet Land of Liberty Thomas J. Sugrue, 2009-10-13 Sweet Land of Liberty is Thomas J Sugrue's epic account of the abiding quest for racial equality in states from Illinois to New York and of how the intense northern struggle differed from and was inspired by the fight down South Sugrue's panoramic view sweeps from the 1920s to the present more than eighty of the most decisive years in American history He uncovers the forgotten stories of battles to open up lunch counters beaches and movie theaters in the North the untold history of struggles against Jim Crow schools in northern towns the dramatic story of racial conflict in northern cities and suburbs and the long and tangled histories of integration and black power Filled with unforgettable characters and riveting incidents and making use of information and accounts both public and private such as the writings of obscure African American journalists and the records of civil rights and black power groups Sweet Land of Liberty creates an indelible history Perfect Communities Edward Berenson, 2025-04-22 The rise and fall of William J Levitt the man who made the suburban house a mass commodity Two material artifacts defined the middle class American lifestyle in the mid twentieth century the automobile which brought gas stations highways commercial strips and sprawl and the single family suburban home the repository of many families long term wealth While the man who did the most to make the automobile a mass commodity Henry Ford is well known few know the story of the man who did the same for the suburban house Edward Berenson describes the remarkable career of William Levitt who did more than anyone else to create the modern suburb In response to an unprecedented housing shortage as veterans returned home from World War II his Levittown developments provided inexpensive mass produced housing that was wildly popular prospective buyers would camp out in line for two days for the chance to put down a deposit on a Levitt house He was a celebrity a life changing hero to tens of thousands and the pitchman of a renewed American Dream But Levitt also shared Ford's dark side He refused to allow Black people to buy or rent in his developments and doggedly defended this practice against legal challenges Leading the way for other developers who emulated his actions he helped ensure that suburbs nationwide remained white enclaves These legacies are still with us Levitt made a major contribution to the stubborn wealth disparity between white families and Black families and his solution to the housing crisis of the 1940s the detached house and surrounding yard is a primary cause of the housing crisis today As a person Levitt was a strangely guileless and tragic figure He accumulated vast wealth but after losing control of his building company surrendered it all through foolish investments and a lavish lifestyle that included a Long Island mansion and a two hundred foot yacht Just weeks before his death as a charity patient in a hospital to which he had once given millions he was still imagining his great comeback

Second Suburb Dianne Harris, 2013-11-06 Carved from eight square miles of Bucks County farmland northeast of Philadelphia Levittown Pennsylvania is a symbol of postwar suburbia and the fulfillment of the American Dream Begun in 1952 after the completion of an identically named community on Long Island the second Levittown soon eclipsed its New York counterpart in scale and ambition yet it continues to live in the shadow of its better known sister and has received limited scholarly attention Second Suburb uncovers the unique story of Levittown Pennsylvania and its significance to American social architectural environmental and political history The volume offers a fascinating profile of this planned community in two parts The first examines Levittown from the inside including oral histories of residents recalling how Levittown shaped their lives One such reminiscence is by Daisy Myers part of the first African American family to move to the community only to become the targets of a race riot that would receive international publicity The book also includes selections from the syndicated comic strip Zippy the Pinhead in which Bill Griffith reflects on the angst ridden trials of growing up in a Levittown and an extensive photo essay of neighborhood homes schools churches parks and swimming pools collected by Dianne Harris The second part of the book views Levittown from the outside Contributors consider the community's place in planning and architectural history and the Levitts strategies for the mass production of housing Other chapters address the class stratification of neighborhood sections through price structuring individual attempts to personalize a home's form and space as a representation of class and identity the builders focus on the kitchen as the centerpiece of the home and its greatest selling point the community's environmental and ecological legacy racist and exclusionary sales policies resident activism during the gas riots of 1979 and America's lost Eden Bringing together some of the top scholars in architectural history American studies and landscape studies Second Suburb explores the surprisingly rich interplay of design technology and social response that marks the emergence and maturation of an exceptionally potent rendition of the American Dream

Family Bonds Ellen K. Feder, 2007-08-06 Feminist and critical race theorists alike have long acknowledged the intersection of gender and race difference it is by now a truism that the ways we become boys and girls men and women cannot be disentangled from the ways we become white or Black men and women Asian or Latino boys and girls And yet even as many have sought to attend to this intersection of difference most critical treatments focus finally either on the production of gender or the production of race Family Bonds proposes a new way to think about the categories of gender and race together It first explicates and then puts to work Foucault s archaeological and genealogical methods to advance the main argument of the book Gender is best understood primarily as a function of disciplinary power operating within the family while race is primarily a function of a regulatory power acting upon the family Each of the book s central chapters is an individual story or history the founding of Levittown the definitive suburb after the Second World War 1950s and 60s the development of the diagnosis of Gender Identity Disorder 1970s and 1980s and the federal coordination of scientific research on violence 1980s and 1990s Together they make up a larger story about the construction of race and gender in the U S in the second half of the twentieth century and demonstrate the centrality of the family in these constructions Rather than a formal study of Foucault s own work Family Bonds is an effort to produce genealogies of the sort that Foucault himself hoped his work would prompt
