 American history it s very hard to find compelling original stories and even harder to find authors worthy of them In The Fifteen William Geroux delivers the goods John U Bacon New York Times bestselling author of The Great Halifax Explosion
 The American government was faced with an unprecedented challenge where to house the nearly 400 000 German prisoners of war plucked from the battlefield and shipped across the Atlantic On orders from President Franklin D Roosevelt the Department of War hastily built hundreds of POW camps in the United States Today traces of those camps which once dotted the landscape from Maine to California have all but vanished Forgotten too is the grisly series of killings that took place within them Nazi power games playing out in the heart of the United States Protected by the Geneva Convention German POWs were well fed and housed Many worked on American farms and a few would even go on to marry farmers daughters Ardent Nazis in the camps however took a dim view of fellow Germans who befriended their captors Soon the killings began In camp after camp Nazis attacked fellow Germans they deemed disloyal Fifteen were sentenced to death by secret U S military tribunals for acts of murder In response German authorities condemned fifteen American POWs to the same fate and in the waning days of the war Germany proposed an audacious trade fifteen German lives for fifteen American lives Drawing on extensive research journalist and author William Geroux shines a spotlight on this story of murder and high stakes diplomacy and on the fifteen American lives that hung in the balance from a fearless P 51 Mustang fighter pilot to a hot tempered lieutenant colonel nicknamed King Kong Propulsive and vividly rendered The Fifteen reminds us that what happens to soldiers after they exit the battlefield can be just as harrowing as what they experience on it Proceedings of the Fifteenth Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society Science Society Cognitive, Con,POLSON,1993 This volume features the complete text of all regular papers posters and summaries of symposia presented at the 15th annual meeting of the Cognitive Science Society
