An Evidence-based Approach to the Practice of Educational Leadership Ronald W. Rebores, Angela Lynn Evans Walmsley, 2007

This text presents a thorough and current best practice treatment of Educational Leadership in schools and school districts that addresses the complex use of quantitative and qualitative evidence in the decision making process. The text covers the full range of introductory issues faced by school leaders today and emphasizes areas that are critical and timely. The authors address standard leadership topics and also further explore current social, cultural, technological, and economic realities. This text utilizes ISLLC/ELCC guidelines so that students can develop a leadership approach that reflects current standards and is organized around the processes and procedures necessary for implementing effective learning environments.

21st Century Education: A Reference Handbook Thomas L. Good, 2008-10-01

21st Century Education: A Reference Handbook offers 100 chapters written by leading experts in the field that highlight the most important topics, issues, questions, and debates facing educators today. This comprehensive and authoritative two-volume work provides undergraduate education majors with insight into the rich array of issues inherent in education, issues informing debates that involve all Americans. Key Features: Provides undergraduate majors with an authoritative reference source ideal for their classroom research needs; preparation for GREs and research into directions to take in pursuing a graduate degree or career; Offers more detailed information than encyclopedia entries but not as much jargon, detail, or density as journal articles or research handbook chapters; Explores educational policy and reform, teacher education and certification, educational administration, curriculum, and instruction; Offers a reader-friendly common format: Theory, Methods, Applications, Comparison, Future Directions, Summary, References, and Further Readings. 21st Century Education: A Reference Handbook is designed to prepare teachers, professors, and administrators for their future careers informing the debates and preparing them to address the questions and meet the challenges of education today Pivotal Strategies for the Educational Leader Ovid K. Wong, 2007-12-17 Public education has been criticized for under achieving schools and one key phrase for long term school success is school leadership Taken comprehensively leadership emphasizes the importance of where the leader stands at times of decision challenge and conflict The Art of War written by Sun Tzu a Chinese military strategist more than 2500 years ago represents a very complex work of philosophy and military strategy A good part of the work describes the pivotal role of a leader and his understanding and application of the winning factors The Art of War application to education is about solving i e fighting problems i e the enemy to improve student and school success The Art of War describes the significance of a leader and his knowledge and prudent application of the strategies At the core of these strategies is the non negotiable moral purpose of the leader to be reinforced by other fine qualities as wisdom commitment discipline and courage Readers will be amazed and rewarded by finding the relevance and practicality of this ancient Eastern philosophy The 1992 Study of the American School Superintendency Thomas E. Glass, Lars G. Bjork, C. Cryss Brunner, American Association of School Administrators, 1992 A survey of school district superintendents sought to gather data on a number of characteristics and compare the data to studies conducted in 1971 and 1982 From a random sample of 2 536 superintendents stratified by district size usable survey responses were received from 1 724 for a return rate of 68 percent or 11 percent of all United States superintendents In the study sample of 1 724 superintendents only 115 are women and only 66 are minority The 1992 study includes data on the following 1 personal profiles of superintendents including gender age family status education and area of residence 2 relationships with board members including evaluation and terms of employment 3 characteristics of school districts including staffing hiring practices programming and size 4 selected community characteristics including their involvement and influence in district decision making 5 superintendents opinions on key problems and issues in education 6 issues surrounding the preparation of superintendents and professional development of practicing superintendents and 7 career patterns of superintendents Contains 91 references MLF Journal of School Leadership ,2003 School Leader Internship Gary E.
