Sleeping Literacy Tree:

Inside the Literacy Hour Ros Fisher, 2003-12-16 The National Literacy Strategy is at the heart of the government drive to raise the standards in literacy in schools Based on a research project conducted in classrooms during the first year of the National Literacy Strategy NLS this book provides a practical analysis of the ways in which successful teachers have implemented the Literacy Hour Taking a reflective approach it chronicles how teachers have changed their attitudes and practice over the first year and questions why these changes have occurred With various descriptions of teachers practice and examples of children s writing throughout this is an in depth yet down to earth reflective analysis of effective literacy teaching Ros Fisher looks in detail at issues such as improving the teaching of literacy researching classroom practice children s learning in the Literacy Hour changing practice at Key Stage One and Two and mixed age classes and literacy for four year olds

Teaching Global Literacy Using Mnemonics Joan Ebbesmeyer, 2006-10-30 Have you ever wanted to think of a way for your students to remember world capitals or the rivers in a certain region Ebbesmeyer s book Teaching Global Literacy Using Mnemonics will help you do that and teach the national geography standards as well The book is divided into sections by continents Each section has a short introduction suggested annotated reading lists of picture and chapter books to motivate student interest in that geographic area and a mnemonic sentence rhyme or story that will help students remember the makeup of the country or continent discussed The mnemonics differ from the usual in that they are directly connected to the region people or culture being studied There is a simple map of the region and activities tied to the national standards for geography Activities focus on ideas to integrate global studies with all other areas of the curriculum and on ways to motivate teachers and students to extend the lessons and create their own ideas
