Harvey,2018-09-13 For Mako a twelve year old boy growing up in Kaikoura New Zealand life changes for the better after he throws a stone accidentally through a church window This incident begins his friendship with Hariata an elderly spiritual Maori woman who opens Mako's eyes to the spiritual aspect of his local environment among nature the forest the Kowhai river the birds and the ocean Set in the summer of 1988 the adventure of growth for Mako and reconciliatory healing for Hariata unfold under the watchful eye of the sacred mountain There is no beginning or end to nature just as there is no beginning or end to life The collage of beautiful colors in the paua shell comes from these elements the heart and soul of our mountain Again do not be fooled by what you first see These shells are the gems of the ocean They are the rainbows of the sea Mako They are the mana from the sacred mountain that watches over all of us This adventure was written twenty months before the 7.8 magnitude earthquake that shook the Kaikoura township and surrounding region on the 14 November 2016 Everyone in the area has been affected by it My heartfelt thoughts go out to them all Their struggle since to resurrect their lives has brought them closer together As you read this story send your positive thoughts to Kaikoura and the community We wish them well for the future

Simply Free Michael G. Hogan, 2017-09-12 When Michael Hogan started writing he never set out to pen a poetry collection He simply told stories of his dad and over time the stories became confessionals in rhyme Watching someone suffer through the terrible disease of alcoholism taught Michael many life lessons ones he never wanted to learn The only way to exorcise those old demons was to write Simply Free is a collection of words that ring true to any child spouse or family member of an addict In Something's Wrong Dad he gives voice to a child's fear Who are you Dad You change too much Like when you drink is that your crutch What's in the bottle you crave so dearly It doesn't help me see you clearly I pray I pray for things to turn Steady my mind from the churn Only my dad controls the change Please Dad don't be so strange Dedicated to his dad Simply Free flowed much easier than Michael originally expected He believed sharing his thoughts and feelings would be unsettling instead the poems set him free Through words happy and sad read of hope postaddiction and the love of a child for his father

Legislation 75 Fred M. Weitz, 2007-10 Jon Smith keeps a diary of stories concerning the hotly debated Legislation 75 which mandates death for all people by lethal injection on their seventy fifth birthdays The topic hits close to home when Jon receives his first invitation to a going away party from his new friend Bennie Following Bennie's state mandated death Jon walks daily with his dog and regularly encounters Bennie who is in another dimension Bennie reveals to Jon that he had participated in the government's covert Fountain of Youth Project which has shown that certain manipulations of body chemistry and cellular structure slow the human aging process to a crawl Public exposure of the project is forbidden due to the financial impact it would have on the pharmaceutical industry but Jon is compelled to find a way to bring the Fountain of Youth Project to the public eye This thought provoking novel examines the implications of government dictated termination and the many physical emotional and spiritual considerations of a mandated end to life
