Slocum And The Bounty Jumpers:

Slocum and the Bounty Jumpers Jake Logan, 2003 Slocum doesn't normally go for bounty kills but the murderous Conrad brothers killed the son and daughter in law of Slocum's friend When Slocum and his partner gun down four of the Conrads they soon are the targets of a polecat who's eyeing the bounty Original Slocum #290: Slocum and the Treasure Chest Jake Logan, 2003-03-25 These three gangs won't let up until Slocum fesses up One against a vicious gang of road agents One against a Crow war posse One against a corrupt American cavalry The odds are pretty lousy for Slocum and he would never play this hand in a saloon But he knows that if he folds some of these hombres will take it upon themselves to send him to that great gambling hall in the sky While Slocum traversed Utah by stagecoach on business he had no idea that there was 16 000 in precious coins on board But when the treasure chest goes missing all fingers point to him Even with the help of a very hospitable hostess Slocum knows he can't hide forever And his newfound enemies want to bring him to justice Western style Sherman's Forgotten General Brian C. Melton, 2007 Biography of Union major general Henry W Slocum Author explores Slocum's attitudes and tactics while serving under various Civil War generals such as George McClellan Joseph Fighting Joe Hooker and William Tecumseh Sherman Provided by publisher Slocum 336 Jake Logan, 2007-01-30 They're out for blood but after the wrong man A pit stop in Las Vegas along the appropriately named Journey of Death lands Slocum in jail but not for long They've got the wrong man and after Slocum's escape there are bounty hunters and lawmen hot on his trail The man they really want is Slocum's doppelganger Neale with his hide intact for a greater cash reward With bounty thirsty men on his trail Slocum's only refreshment is a curvy city girl who's determined to help him find Neale and get a little something for herself But once Slocum lays eyes on Neale he's not concerned with keeping him alive Slocum 381 Jake Logan, 2010-10-26 Slocum's got a new partner with a bad memory A week ago John Slocum collected a 7000 bounty on Teddy Cutler But now he's spotted Teddy walking around Phoenix Arizona free as a bird with no recollection of robbing four stagecoaches and killing three men The law believes Teddy's been afflicted with amnesia and Slocum's been given the job of keeping an eye on him to determine whether Teddy's condition makes him an innocent man or if he's just playing possum The Oil-well Driller Charles Austin Whiteshot, 1905 Slocum 419 Jake Logan, 2013-12-31 Two dangerous dames are about to go down Slocum is on his way to Durango to see a man about a horse four horses in fact when he watches a mining blast send a man to his death In the distance he spies the distinctive shape of a woman in man's clothing making her getaway and hears a second woman aiding her retreat Slocum is no fool when it comes to the dangers of the fairer sex but now he's on the hunt for a pair of ladies who know their way around dynamite And when he finally finds them sparks and bullets are going to fly The Inter Ocean Curiosity Shop ..., 1893 Coal Oil Johnny John Washington Steele, 1902 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1940 American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Collis' Zouaves Edward J. Hagerty, 2005-03-30 Led by the enthralling and controversial colonel Charles H T Collis the 114th

Pennsylvania Infantry was in many ways unique among the regiments serving in the Union Army In Collis Zouaves Edward J Hagerty reconstructs the Civil War experiences of this unusual group of soldiers who embraced the flamboyant uniform style made famous by the French army's Zouaves Recruited in the summer of 1862 from Philadelphia and surrounding counties the regiment battled Stonewall Jackson in the Shenandoah Valley campaign and went on to participate in many of the major battles of the war including Fredericksburg Chancellorsville Gettysburg and Petersburg

Paying with Their Bodies John M. Kinder, 2015-03-23 This valuable history examines America's complex and often conflicting relationship to wounded veterans and the lasting legacies of warfare The Intercept America has grappled with the questions posed by injured veterans since its founding and with particular force since the early twentieth century What are the nation's obligations to those who fight in its name And when does war's legacy of disability outweigh the nation's interests at home and abroad Focusing in particular on the decades surrounding World War I John M Kinder argues that disabled veterans have long been at the center of two competing visions of American war one that highlights the relative safety of US military intervention overseas the other indelibly associating American war with injury mutilation and suffering Kinder shows that when we bring disabled veterans into the foreground of history the narrative of American war over the last century takes a very different shape War can no longer be seen as a discrete experience easily left behind rather its human legacies are felt for decades

The Story of Our Regiment Joseph Wendel Muffly, 1904 Soldiers True John Richards Boyle, 1903 Oil Mania Ernest Conrad Miller, 1941 The Historical Album and Daily Program, Venango County Sesquicentennial, 1805-1955 Venango County Sesqui-Centennial Association, 1955

Hearts Touched by Fire Harold Holzer, 2011-04-05 In July 1883 just a few days after the twentieth anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg a group of editors at The Century Magazine engaged in a lively argument Which Civil War battle was the bloodiest battle of them all One claimed it was Chickamauga another Cold Harbor The argument inspired a brainstorm Why not let the magazine's 125 000 readers in on the conversation by offering a series of papers on some of the great battles of the war to be written by officers in command on both sides The articles would be written by generals Union and Confederate alike who had commanded the engagements two decades earlier or if he were not living by the person most entitled to speak for him or in his place The pieces would present both sides of each major battle and would be fair and free of politics In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the Civil War the most enduring entries from the classic four volume series Battles and Leaders of the Civil War have now been edited and merged into one definitive volume Here are the best of the immortal first person accounts of the Civil War originally published in the pages of The Century Magazine more than a hundred years ago Hearts Touched by Fire offers stunning accounts of the war's great battles written by the men who planned fought and witnessed them from leaders such as General Ulysses S Grant General George McClellan and Confederate captain Clement Sullivane to men of lesser rank This collection also features new year by year introductions by esteemed historians including James M McPherson Craig L Symonds and James I Robertson Jr who cast wise modern eyes on the cataclysm that changed America and would go down as the bloodiest conflict in our nation's history. No one interested in our country's past will want to be without this collection of the most popular and influential first person Civil War memoirs ever published. The American Legion Magazine American Legion, 1940 Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1898
