

The background of the cover is a painting depicting a scene of manual labor. In the foreground, a man in a light-colored shirt and dark trousers is kneeling on the ground, working with a large, flat, woven basket or tray filled with a fibrous material, possibly wool or flax. He is using a small tool to process the material. To his left, another person is partially visible, also working. The ground is covered with various items, including large, round, light-colored objects that look like bales of wool or flax, and some green plants. The background shows a field with more people working, and a blue sky with white clouds is visible at the top.
