A "sun witch" typically refers to a practitioner of witchcraft or Wicca who focuses on harnessing the energy and symbolism associated with the sun in their magical practices. Sun witches may draw inspiration from various cultures and mythologies that revere the sun as a symbol of power, vitality, and enlightenment. They may work with solar deities, incorporate sun-related symbols and rituals into their spellwork, and align their practices with the cycles of the sun, such as sunrise and sunset. Sun witches often seek to channel the solar energy for purposes such as healing, empowerment, growth, and manifestation. It's important to note that the specific beliefs and practices of a sun witch can vary widely depending on individual spiritual traditions and personal preferences. Throughout history, many ancient cultures and civilizations revered the sun as a powerful deity or divine force, but sun witchery was prevalent in societies such as ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Greece, Rome, and the indigenous cultures of the Americas.
