The Fifth Flame Qamara Āzāda Hāsāmī, 1997 Biography of Safdar Hashmi 1954 1989 playwright street theater actor and Hindi author Feminist Visions and Queer Futures in Postcolonial Drama Kanika Batra, 2011-04-13 In this timely study Batra examines contemporary drama from India Jamaica and Nigeria in conjunction with feminist and incipient queer movements in these countries Postcolonial drama Batra contends furthers the struggle for gender justice in both these movements by contesting the idea of the heterosexual middle class wage earning male as the model citizen and by suggesting alternative conceptions of citizenship premised on working class sexual identities Further Batra considers the possibility of Indian Jamaican and Nigerian drama generating a discourse on a rights bearing conception of citizenship that derives from representations of non biological non generational forms of kinship Her study is one of the first to examine the ways in which postcolonial dramatists are creating the possibility of a dialogue between cultural activism women s movements and an emerging discourse on queer sexualities Acts of Authority/Acts of Resistance Nandi Bhatia, 2010-02-01 Explores the relationship between nationalism colonialism and the politics of theater in colonial and postcolonial India Brecht in India Dr. Prateek, 2020-11-12 Brecht in India analyses the dramaturgy and theatrical practices of the German playwright Bertolt Brecht in post independence India The book explores how post independence Indian drama is an instance of a cultural palimpsest a site celebrating a dialogue between Western and Indian theatrical traditions rather than a homogenous and isolated canon Analysing the dissemination of a selection of Brecht s plays in the Hindi belt between the 1960s and the 1990s this study demonstrates that Brecht s work provided aesthetic and ideological paradigms to modern Hindi playwrights helping them develop and stage a national identity The book also traces how the reception of Brecht was mediated in India how it helped post independence Indian playwrights formulate a political theatre and how the dissemination of Brechtian aesthetics in India addressed the anxiety related to the stasis in Brechtian theatre in Europe Tracking the dialogue between Brechtian aesthetics in India and Europe and a history of deliberate cultural resistance Brecht in India is an invaluable resource for academics and students of theatre studies and theatre historiography as well as scholars of post colonial history and literature Das Brecht-Jahrbuch Tom Kuhn, David Barnett, Theodore F. Rippey, 2018 The leading publication on Brecht his work and topics of interest to him this annual volume documents the International Brecht Society s 2016 symposium Recycling Brecht Published for the International Brecht Society by Camden House the Brecht Yearbook is the central scholarly forum for discussion of Brecht s life and work and of topics of particular interest to him especially the politics of literature and of theater in a global context It includes a wide variety of perspectives and approaches and like Brecht himself is committed to the concept of the use value of literature theater and theory Volume 42 features a selection of the papers given and protocols of the events held at the International Brecht Society s Recycling Brecht symposium at St Hugh s College Oxford in June 2016 The theme of recycling is understood both as a description of Brecht s own creative practice and as an activity applied to his works by others The volume includes keynote papers by Hans Thies Lehmann and Amal Allana on Brecht's reception of Antigone and on the reception and recycling of Brecht in India respectively Other papers are on a wide range of topics from Brecht's own recycling of Shakespeare and others through the reception of his own works in a range of contexts and by later writers to contemporary works that may be understood as post Brechtian The final section introduced by an extended interview with American playwright Tony Kushner documents additional creative responses to the theme Volume co editors Tom Kuhn and David Barnett are respectively Professor of Twentieth Century German Literature at the University of Oxford and Professor of Theatre at the University of York Managing Editor Theodore F Rippey is Associate Professor of German at Bowling Green State University Elusive Lives Siobhan

Lambert-Hurley, 2018-07-31 Muslim South Asia is widely characterized as a culture that idealizes female anonymity women's bodies are veiled and their voices silenced Challenging these perceptions Siobhan Lambert Hurley highlights an elusive strand of autobiographical writing dating back several centuries that offers a new lens through which to study notions of selfhood In Elusive Lives she locates the voices of Muslim women who rejected taboos against women speaking out by telling their life stories in written autobiography To chart patterns across time and space materials dated from the sixteenth century to the present are drawn from across South Asia including present day India Pakistan and Bangladesh Lambert Hurley uses many rare autobiographical texts in a wide array of languages including Urdu English Hindi Bengali Gujarati Marathi Punjabi and Malayalam to elaborate a theoretical model for gender autobiography and the self beyond the usual Euro American frame In doing so she works toward a new globalized history of the field Ultimately Elusive Lives points to the sheer diversity of Muslim women's lives and life stories offering a unique window into a history of the everyday against a backdrop of imperialism reformism nationalism and feminism Bombay--London--New York Amitava Kumar, 2013-10-18 First published in 2003 When Amitava Kumar left Patna India he envisioned himself as an up and coming citizen of the world leaving behind the confines of Indian traditions Yet like the wave of exiles that preceded him he found that once we leave our past we are defined by it in the U S he is pigeonholed by his appearance and quizzed about saris and arranged marriages There is no beginning that is a blank page writes Kumar Circling the three capitals of the Indian diaspora Bombay London New York captures the contours of the expatriate experience touching on the themes of abandonment nostalgia and exile that have powered some of the most prominent Indian writers today Naipaul Rushdie Roy Kureishi as well as E M Forster and Gandhi With resonant poetic language and a storyteller's sensibility Kumar explores the works of these writers through the lens of his own life as an immigrant and writer As their fiction reveals the past of the expatriate is mythical shaped by memory and loss With tales of life in India and London and meditations on the form Indian fiction gives to the lives of those who read about it this is a sweeping passionate search to find one's own story in the stories of others Outlook, 1997 Wisdom
