Haunted Life David Marriott,2007 In Haunted Life David Marriott examines the complex interplay between racial fears and anxieties and the political visual cultures of suspicion and state terror He compels readers to consider how media technologies are haunted by the phantom of racial slavery Through examples from film and television modernist literature and philosophy he shows how the ideological image of a brutal African past is endlessly recycled and how this perpetuation of historical catastrophe stokes our nation s race conscious paranoia Drawing on a range of comparative readings by writers theorists and filmmakers including John Edgar Wideman Frantz Fanon Richard Wright Issac Julien Alain Locke and Sidney Poitier Haunted Life is a bold and original exploration of the legacies of black visual culture and the political deeply sexualized violence that lies buried beneath it Travel & See Kobena Mercer,2016-02-04 Over the years Kobena Mercer has critically illuminated the visual innovations of African American and black British artists In Travel See he presents a diasporic model of criticism that gives close attention to aesthetic strategies while tracing the shifting political and cultural contexts in which black visual art circulates In eighteen essays which cover the period from 1992 to 2012 and discuss such leading artists as Isaac Julien Ren e Green Kerry James Marshall and Yinka Shonibare Mercer provides nothing less than a counternarrative of global contemporary art that reveals how the dialogical principle of cross cultural interaction not only has transformed commonplace perceptions of blackness today but challenges us to rethink the entangled history of modernism as well Remediating Transcultural Memory Dagmar Brunow,2015-09-25 The impact of digital global media geopolitical changes and migration demands new theorizations within memory studies Despite the growing field of media memory studies the impact from film and media studies has been scarce within memory studies This unique study offers new theorizations of three crucial concepts for media memory studies remediation transculturality and the archive This book takes a closer look at the media specificity of archival footage and how it is adapted translated and appropriated In its original approach this work reflects upon the role of documentary film images for the construction of memory By merging film and media studies with memory studies the work offers multiple theoretical and methodological approaches for everyone
