Stories We Need to Know Allan G. Hunter,2008-01-01 A combination of therapy and expertise in literature this book explains the six archetypes derived from 4 000 years of literature and how they may guide unhappy people seeking meaning in their lives Holding up the great books as the best way to understand these timeless story elements the discussion devotes a chapter to each of the six archetypes the innocent the orphan the pilgrim the warrior lover the monarch pair and the magician Story structures are shown to be particularly suited to therapy with adolescents many of whom have never stepped away from television and the shopping mall long enough to understand their unmet spiritual needs What Do I Say to a Friend Who's Gay? Emily Parke Chase, With real life stories and answers from a Christian perspective this text teaches young adults how to openly minister to gay friends and deal with personal questions regarding the social ambiguities of homosexuality

Embracing the Track of Term: An Psychological Symphony within The First Note The Magical Gift Of Unconditional Love

In some sort of used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic elegance and mental symphony created by the published term usually diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of The First Note The Magical Gift Of Unconditional Love a wonderful literary value overflowing with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching examination, we will explore the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
