Gabriel Fauré?The Songs and their Poets Graham Johnson,2017-07-05 The career of Gabriel Fauré s a composer of songs for voice and piano traverses six decades 1862 1921 almost the whole history of French music is contained within these parameters In the 1860s Fauré the lifelong protégé of Camille Saint Saëns was a suavely precocious student he was part of Pauline Viardot s circle in the 1870s and he nearly married her daughter Pointed in the direction of symbolist poetry by Robert de Montesquiou in 1886 Fauré as the favoured composer from the early 1890s of Winifred Singer later Princesse de Polignac and his songs were revered by Marcel Proust In 1905 he became director of the Paris Conservatoire and he composed his most profound music in old age His existence steadily productive and outwardly imperturbable was undermined by self doubt an unhappy marriage and a tragic loss of hearing In this detailed study Graham Johnson places the vocal music within twin contexts Fauré own life story and the parallel lives of his many poets We encounter such giants as Charles Baudelaire and Paul Verlaine the patrician Leconte de Lisle the forgotten Armand Silvestre and the Belgian symbolist Charles Van Lerberghe The chronological range of the narrative encompasses Fauré first poet Victor Hugo who railed against Napoleon III in the 1850s and the last Jean de La Ville de Mirmont killed in action in the First World War In this comprehensive and richly illustrated study each of Fauré 109 songs receives a separate commentary Additional chapters for the student singer and serious music lover discuss interpretation and performance in both aesthetical and practical terms Richard Stokes provides parallel English translations of the original French texts In the twenty first century musical modernity is evaluated differently from the way it was assessed thirty years ago Fauré s no longer merely a Master of Charms circumscribed by the belle époque His status as a great composer of timeless

Walt Whitman and Modern Music Lawrence Kramer,2018-12-07 Walt Whitman s poetry especially his Civil War poetry attracted settings by a wide variety of modern composers in both English and German speaking countries The essays in this volume trace the transformation of Whitman s nineteenth century texts into vehicles for confronting twentieth century problems aesthetic social and political The contributors pay careful attention to music and poetry alike in examining how the Whitman settings become exemplary means of dealing with both the tragic and utopian faces of modernism The book is accompanied by a recording by Joan Heller and Thomas Stumpf of complete Whitman cycles composed by Kurt Weill George Crumb and Lawrence Kramer and the first recording of four Whitman songs composed in the 1920s by Marc Blitzstein
