The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society

The Nuptial Mystery
 Angelo Scola,2005-05-12 Translated by Michelle K Borrás The idea of love pervades our society yet it is nearly impossible to answer the question What is love especially as we witness the divorce of love from sexuality and of sexuality from procreation Aware that many people today are skeptical about marriage Angelo Cardinal Scola nevertheless suggests that only in the category of nuptial mystery do we find a way to adequately describe the phenomenon of love A bright new leader in the Catholic Church Cardinal Scola argues that the male female relationship lies near the heart of what it means to bear the image of God Scola s book explores the essential sexual differences that both separate and unite men and women and it shows how men and women can realize their purpose in marriage or celibacy Conversant with papal teaching and Catholic writers from Aquinas to von Balthasar Cardinal Scola writes with a deep regard for marriage and the family His Nuptial Mystery will leave readers with a thoroughly Christian appreciation for incarnate love God's Mother, Eve's Advocate

Tina Beattie,2002-12-01 Tina Beattie has written a stunning book on the theology of woman Her stated objective is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female the figures of Mary and Eve Beattie has pursued her subject with the aid of French psychoanalytic feminism these writers are preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary Virginal desire according to Beattie need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women s desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality Mary Daly's (1928-2010)

Theological Method of Ontolinguistic Hermeneutics Antonina Wozna,2025-03-03 Ontolinguistics theological Hermeneutics sources and Daly s proposal analyses the method used by Mary Daly her constructive criticism of the traditional theological method and her proposal to combine the best insights of the Christian tradition hermeneutic philosophy and feminist theology The book brings together the inputs of a pioneer in feminist theology Mary Daly on the much debated issue of theology as method This book along with Antonina Wozna s Theological hermeneutics and Daly s verification process are important reads for scholars working in the intersection of theology gender and feminism
