Locating Filipino Americans Rick Bonus, 2000 Locating Filipino Americans an ethnographic study of Filipino American communities in Los Angeles and San Diego presents a multi disciplinary cultural analysis of the relationship between ethnic identity and social space Author Rick Bonus argues that alternative community spaces enable Filipino Americans to respond to and resist the ways in which the larger society has historically and institutionally rendered them invisible silenced and racialized The author focuses on social halls community centers and the community newspapers to demonstrate how ethnic identities are publicly constituted and communities are transformed Delineating the spaces formed by diasporic consciousness Bonus shows how community members appropriate elements from their former homeland and from their new settlements in ways defined by their critical stances against racism homogenization complete assimilation and exclusionary citizenship back cover
