The Fisherwoman:

Against the Evidence David Ignatow, 2012-01-01 For over half a century David Ignatow has crafted spare plain haunting poetry of working life urban images and dark humor The poetic heir of Whitman and William Carlos Williams Ignatow is characteristically concerned with human mortality and human alienation in the world the world as it is defined by suffering and despair yet at crucial times redeemed by cosmic vision and shared lives His development as a poet is chronicled in Against the Evidence title of the poem in part quoted above and meant by Ignatow as the metaphor for the whole body of his work Where his previous collections have been organized thematically Ignatow here arranges his poems according to the decade in which they were written returning each to its chronological order Against the Evidence charts the evolution of his themes from the earliest origin in the Thirties to their present extraordinary manifestation in a variety of poetic forms and modes
