Unlikely Entrepreneurs Barbra Mann Wall,2005 In Unlikely Entrepreneurs Barbra Mann Wall looks at the development of religious hospitals in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and the entrepreneurial influence Catholic sisters held in this process When immigrant nuns came to the United States in the late nineteenth century they encountered a market economy that structured the way they developed their hospitals Sisters enthusiastically engaged in the market as entrepreneurs but they used a set of tools and understanding that were counter to the market Their entrepreneurship was not to expand earnings but rather to advance Catholic spirituality Wall places the development of Catholic hospital systems located in Illinois Indiana Minnesota Texas and Utah owned and operated by Catholic sisters within the larger social economic and medical history of the time In the modern health care climate with the influences of corporations federal laws spiraling costs managed care and medical practices that rely less on human judgments and more on technological innovations the modern hospital reflects a dim memory of the past This book will inform future debates on who will provide health care as the sisters depart how costs will be met who will receive care and who will be denied access to health services

Escaping Rapture of Devotion Eloise Epps MacKinnon, 2017-08-26. Escaping Rapture of Devotion is this riveting fictional romance tale capturing the life of Ella Epstein whose life with her Boy Friend Rules has become like the Argentina Tango, unveiling all its twist and turns to escape the rapture in a romance that takes her by storm. Ella, a small town Woonsocket girl whose heart has had its full with men and all those little burning emotions called love. A man was really the last thing on Ella's heart today or any day until she sights this vision of a Knight In Shining Armor who casts his image over her blanket at the Newport Jazz Festival. Ella is in love at first glimpse upon seeing all of this heavenly creature's glory in the flesh. Until Ella lay eyes on Gordon McNeil she has only seen love in a romance novel or movie. However now she's living the fairytale romance herself similar to all the ones she has ever witnessed in the flash of an eye. Only thing Ella's new found love she finds hard to deal with. Ella's spinning out of control. She's in a state of frenzy doing all sorts of things in the name of love. Never in her wildest dreams would Ella ever imagine going home so happy. Ella has what her friend would call the brass ring on the merry-go-round of life from the Newport Jazz Festival. Her eyes and heart are in love at first image with this stranger who set her world aflame. Ella's never known any man who made her thirst for him so greedily the way this man does without a touch or words. Until the night intrusion of its phone number fiasco which tears Ella's heart apart from him too soon while this evening was still young for them both. After several weeks of agonizing over her loss of Aaron, a little trusty work of one PI and two trusted friends helps Ella reunite with Aaron in a flaming bond of love even stronger than before. Ella knew all her prayers had been answered through her love and faith in a trusting God.
