The ISLE Reader Michael P. Branch, Scott Slovic, 2003 This volume gathers nineteen of the most representative and defining essays from the journal ISLE Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and Environment over the course of its first ten years Following an introduction that traces the stages of ecocriticism's development The ISLE Reader is organized into three sections each of which reflects one of the general goals the journal has sought to accomplish The section titled Re-evaluations provides new readings of familiar environmental writers and new environmental perspectives on authors or literary traditions not usually considered from a green perspective The writings in Reaching Out to Other Disciplines promote cross-pollination among various disciplines and methodologies in the environmental arts and humanities The writings in the final section New Theoretical and Practical Paradigms are especially significant for the conceptual and methodological terrain they map The ISLE Reader documents the state of research in ecocriticism and related interdisciplinary fields provides a survey of the field and points to new methodologies and possibilities for the future

Critical Ecofeminism Greta Gaard, 2017-06-16 Australian feminist philosopher Val Plumwood coined the term critical ecofeminism to situate humans in ecological terms and non-humans in ethical terms for the two tasks are interconnected and cannot be addressed properly in isolation from each other Various uses of the terms critical ecological feminism critical anti-dualist ecological feminism and critical ecofeminism Plumwood's work developed amid a range of perspectives describing feminist intersections with ecopolitical issues i.e. toxic production and toxic wastes indigenous sovereignty global economic justice species justice colonialism and dominant masculinity Well over a decade before the emergence of posthumanist theory and the new materialisms Plumwood's critical ecofeminist framework articulates an implicit posthumanism and respect for the animacy of all earthothers exposing the linkages among diverse forms of oppression and providing a theoretical basis for further activist coalitions and interdisciplinary scholarship Had Plumwood lived another ten years she might have described her work as Anthropocene Ecofeminism Critical Material Ecofeminism Posthumanist Anticolonial Ecofeminism all of these inflections are present in her work Here Critical Ecofeminism advances upon Plumwood's intellectual activist and scholarly work by exploring its implications for a range of contemporary perspectives and issues critical animal studies plant studies sustainability studies environmental justice climate change and climate justice masculinities and sexualities With the insights available through a critical ecofeminism these diverse eco-justice perspectives become more robust

invaded by three imperial powers Spain Mexico and the United States Deep California examines in depth the lingering psychological traumas and motifs emanating from that long history of conquest These unhealed events have not been left in the past they recur symbolically again and again growing in intensity as the overbuilt land and its distracted occupiers unconsciously but definitively demonstrate that environmental justice and social justice can no longer be thought of as separate Pacing crusaders and colonizers from county to county along El Camino Real Deep California studies the lingering impact of continuous oppression of people and places as images and themes of displacement and exile filter down into architecture agriculture politics art culture psychology and even folklore and dream Yet within the shadows cast over California also dwell resistance humor irony tragedy and hope for more heartfelt and soulful connections to this story rich land of the sundown sea History is an inadequate term for such a sweeping and deep discovery of how the past informs the present This work deserves to be read widely by all Californians and Americans and taken to heart and the hard lessons applied to all places we inhabit on this stolen land Lesley Thomas author of Flight of the Goose Far Eastern Press 2005 A monumental and much needed study in depth of the conquest occupation traumatization and animation of the mission cities and counties of coastal California places which have worked their way into our unsuspecting psyches Linda Buzzell MA MFT co editor of Ecotherapy Healing with Nature in Mind Sierra Club Books 2009 The Solace of Fierce Landscapes Belden C. Lane, 1998 Explores the impulse that has drawn seekers into the wilderness for centuries and offers eloquent testimony to the healing power of mountain silence and desert indifference Cover Such News of the Land Thomas S. Edwards, Elizabeth A. De Wolfe, 2001 A collection of new essays establishes women s voices as a powerful presence in US nature writing Music and the Skillful Listener Denise Von Glahn, 2013-04-09 For Denise Von Glahn listening is that special quality afforded women who have been fettered for generations by the maxim be seen and not heard In Music and the Skillful Listener Von Glahn explores the relationship between listening and musical composition focusing on nine American women composers inspired by the sounds of the natural world Amy Beach Marion Bauer Louise Talma Pauline Oliveros Joan Tower Ellen Taaffe Zwilich Victoria Bond Libby Larsen and Emily Doolittle Von Glahn situates nature composing among the larger tradition of nature writing and argues that like their literary sisters works of these women express deeply held spiritual and aesthetic beliefs about nature Drawing on a wealth of archival and original source material Von Glahn skillfully employs literary and gender studies ecocriticism and ecomusicology and the larger world of contemporary musicological thought to tell the stories of nine women composers who seek to understand nature through music
