Spy, 1989-08 Smart Funny Fearless It's pretty safe to say that Spy was the most influential magazine of the 1980s. It might have remade New York's cultural landscape; it definitely changed the whole tone of magazine journalism. It was cruel, brilliant, beautifully written, and perfectly designed and feared by all. There's no magazine I know of that's so continually referenced, held up as a benchmark, and whose demise is so lamented. Dave Eggers: It's a piece of garbage. Donald Trump

Skeletons in the Closet Anne Blaisdell, 1982      Making the Match Teri S. Lesesne, 2003 Explains how teachers and librarians can steer students to the literature they love by focusing on three key areas: knowing the readers, knowing the books, and knowing the strategies to motivate students to read.      The Atlantic Monthly, 1909      SPIN, 1989-09 From the concert stage to the dressing room, from the recording studio to the digital realm, SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting, provocative interviews, and a discerning critical ear. With dynamic photography, bold graphic design, and informed irreverence, the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds. Whether covering what's new or what's next, SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks.

Herndon's Lincoln William Henry Herndon, Jesse William Weik, 2006 William H. Herndon aspired to write a faithful portrait of his friend and law partner Abraham Lincoln based on his own observations and on hundreds of letters and interviews he had compiled for the purpose. Even more important, he was determined to present Lincoln as a man rather than a saint and to reveal things that the prevailing Victorian conventions said should be left out of the biography of a great national hero. A variety of obstacles kept Herndon from writing his book, however, and not until he found a collaborator in Jesse W. Weik did the biography begin to take shape. It finally appeared in 1889 to decidedly mixed reviews. Though controversial from the outset, Herndon's Lincoln nonetheless established itself as a classic and remains as Don E. Fehrenbacher declared the most influential biography of Lincoln ever published. This new edition restores the original text, includes two chapters added in the revised 1892 edition, and traces the history of how Herndon and his collaborator, after many delays, produced one of the landmark biographies in American letters. Extensive annotation affords the reader a detailed look at the biography's sources.      SPIN, 1996-08 From the concert stage to the dressing room, from the recording studio to the digital realm, SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting, provocative interviews, and a discerning critical ear. With dynamic photography, bold graphic design, and informed irreverence, the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds. Whether covering what's new or what's next, SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks.      Putin's Russia Lilia Shevtsova, 2010-03 This revised edition includes an examination of the recent presidential and parliamentary elections and their effects on Putin's leadership and Russia. Praise for the previous edition: Out of her blunt, often acerbic account come shrewd insights into Putin's transformation from an implausible contrived successor into a dominator unchallenged by oligarchs legislators or regional bosses let alone a democratic opposition Foreign Affairs Shevtsova is one of the most astute and independent minded observers of the Russian political scene Times Literary Supplement Offers many insights into Kremlin court politics as well as Mr Putin and his foes The Economist This well informed Russian observer offers a straightforward situation report Shevtsova s scorecard will interest serious Russia watchers Booklist An insightful account of how the Russian president is swaying on a pendulum between reform and stability Survival A timely expert book Washington Post The South Atlantic Quarterly John Spencer Bassett, Edwin Mims, William Henry Glasson, William Preston Few, William Kenneth Boyd, William Hane Wannamaker, 1918
