Roediger,2010-03-31 In this thought provoking volume David R Roediger has brought together some of the most important black writers throughout history to explore the question What does it really mean to be white in America From folktales and slave narratives to contemporary essays poetry and fiction black writers have long been among America's keenest students of white consciousness and white behavior but until now much of this writing has been ignored Black on White reverses this trend by presenting the work of more than fifty major figures including James Baldwin, Derrick Bell, Ralph Ellison, W. E. B. Du Bois, bell hooks, Toni Morrison and Alice Walker to take a closer look at the many meanings of whiteness in our society. Rich in irony, artistry, passion and common sense, these reflections on what Langston Hughes called the ways of white folks illustrate how whiteness as a racial identity derives its meaning not as a biological category but as a social construct designed to uphold racial inequality. Powerful and compelling, Black on White provides a much needed perspective that is sure to have a major impact on the study of race and race relations in America.

Slaves of the Son of Heaven Roy H. Whitecross, 1971      Slaves to Sweetness Carl Plasa, 2011-09-01

Literary and sociological studies have long been fascinated by the seemingly innocuous substance of sugar not least because of its direct link with the histories of slavery in the New World. Unlike previous texts, Slaves to Sweetness examines not only traditional classic studies of the history of sugar but also explores the previously ignored work produced by expatriate Caribbean authors from the 1980s onward. As a result, this volume provides the most comprehensive account to date of the historical transformations undergone by our representations of sugar, making it a rich resource for scholars in numerous fields.

Religious Identity and the Invention of Tradition A.W.J. Houtepen, Jan Willem van Henten, 2021-11-15

STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 3

This book contains the contributions to the first international conference organised by the Netherlands School for Advanced Studies in Theology and Religion (NOSTER) held in the Netherlands in January 1999. The conference theme was inspired by Eric Hobsbawm and Terence Ranger's influential volume The Invention of Tradition. Their work provided a starting point for discussing formations and changes of religious traditions on the one hand and the interaction of religious identities and the transformation of traditions on the other. After an introductory section discussing Hobsbawm's definitions and his theoretical framework and offering several critical applications of his framework to Christian traditions, the main part of this volume consists of three thematic sections: the theme of the Exodus, the earliest traditions about the Lord's supper and the modern myth of Fundamentalism. This volume will be of interest to all those engaged in the study of religious traditions and identities and the way in which these interact.
