Encyclopedia of Historical Archaeology Charles E. Orser Jr, 2002-09-11 The Encyclopedia of Historical Archaeology is a ground breaking compendium of information about this ever growing field Concentrating on the post 1400 period as well as containing generic explanations of historical archaeology where needed the encyclopedia is compiled by over 120 experts from around the world and contains more than 370 entries covering important concepts and sites Handbook of Harappan Civilisation: Recent Insights and Discoveries V. N. Prabhakar, 2025-12-02 This handbook provides an in depth finding on the Harappan Civilization Indus Civilization Sarasvati Sindhi Sindhu Sarasvati Civilization that flourished from 2600 1900 BCE in the Greater Indus Region It presents the emerging perspectives of the Harappan Civilization and includes the results from the recent excavations in South Asian sites The book begins with the evidence on settled human life the factors that led to the domestication of plants and animals and the cumulative effect on the triggering of urban processes It highlights the evidence of the emergence of towns and villages aided by the technology of copper and trade in different parts of the Greater Indus Region ultimately culminating in the Harappan Civilization It illustrates the hallmark features of the Harappan Civilization and recent findings It updates the latest knowledge on topics like the script and the people the ultimate transformation into a rural culture again mainly due to climatic changes It presents the scientific techniques and methodologies employed in investigating the past particularly the Harappan Civilization It enables the students to pursue similar lines of research in the ever growing field of applying sciences in archaeology The richly illustrated book with maps and photographs assists researchers and scholars in understanding the archaeological facts and information related to the Harappan Civilization Plain Pottery Traditions of the Eastern Mediterranean and Near East Claudia Glatz,2016-07 This volume reevaluates the role and social significance of plain pottery traditions in a range of early complex societies of the Near East and Eastern Mediterranean from both historically specific perspectives and from a comparative point of view

Globalizing Roman Culture Richard Hingley,2005-02-08 Richard Hingley here asks the questions What is Romanization Was Rome the first global culture Romanization has been represented as a simple progression from barbarism to civilization Roman forms in architecture coinage language and literature came to dominate the world from Britain to Syria Hingley argues for a more complex and nuanced view in which Roman models provided the means for provincial elites to articulate their own concerns Inhabitants of the Roman provinces were able to develop identities they never knew they had until Rome gave them the language to express them Hingley draws together the threads of diverse and separate study in one sophisticated theoretical framework that spans the whole Roman Empire Students of Rome and those with an interest in classical cultural studies will find this an invaluable mine of information Across the Corrupting Sea Cavan Concannon,Lindsey A. Mazurek,2016-03-17 Across the Corrupting Sea Post Braudelian Approaches to the Ancient Eastern Mediterranean reframes current discussions of the Mediterranean world by rereading the past with new methodological approaches The work asks readers to consider how future studies might write histories of the Mediterranean moving from the larger pan Mediterranean approaches of The Corrupting Sea towards locally oriented case studies Spanning from the Archaic period to the early Middle Ages contributors engage the pioneering studies of the Mediterranean by Fernand Braudel through the use of critical theory GIS network analysis and postcolonial cultural inquiries Scholars from several time periods and disciplines rethink the Mediterranean as a geographic and cultural space shaped by human connectivity and follow the flow of ideas ships trade goods and pilgrims along the roads and seascapes that connected the Mediterranean across time and space The volume thus interrogates key concepts like cabotage seascapes deep time social networks and connectivity in the light of contemporary archaeological and theoretical advances in order to create new ways of writing more diverse histories of the ancient world that bring together local contexts literary materials and archaeological analysis
