Hampson, 2019-03-04 Originally published in 1988 this second edition of The Construction of Personality has been substantially revised and updated The author provides an introduction to current theory and research in the psychology of personality at the time and examines this work from the perspective of constructivism As a consequence of this constructivist approach the book covers topics from social psychology e g person perception impression formation as well as more conventional areas of personality In this new edition the constructivist perspective is emphasized by the addition of a new chapter in which the constructivist approach to personality is presented and the chapters on the lay and self perspectives have been extensively re written All the other chapters have been revised to include recent material The World John Kearns, 2003-05-06 Why didn t they know He could see the darkness of their souls the void that drove them to huddle together at all times He saw the souls too of all the other swim clubs that he had joined or visited over the years clubs filled with equal measures of hypocrisy deceit and meanness each one seeming to its members as primitive societies did to theirs to be all that there is the whole world Saturated with what he has learned of Classics and history a 16 year old boy reflects upon the flow of recent events in his own history his discovering his Irish heritage his loss of a job his receiving an Artistic vocation his traumatic experiences of unrequited love These events become psychic cataclysms that destroy his traditional worldview and force him to create a new one They also teach him what it means to become an Artist and a man Exploiting imagery ranging from Greek mythology to video games and employing conventional and experimental techniques The World is a passionate multi layered poetic depiction of an artistic soul s maturation Twenty years in the writing The World is a work that should be read again and again The English Revolution of the Twentieth Century Henry Lazarus, 1894 Proceedings National Conference on Social Welfare, 1892 Proceedings of the National Conference of Charities and Correction, at the ... Legislature, 1926 Responding to Youth Crime Paul Omaji, 2003 This book presents a critique of the traditional responses to youth crime by criminal justice agencies in Australia UK New Zealand USA Canada and a vision of how these agencies could respond more effectively The critique examines the ways in which traditional criminal justice approaches trap young people into rather than turn them away from a life of crime The vision is for criminal justice agencies police courts and corrections to become more pro active partners in society s efforts to guide

young people towards becoming happy and productive citizens for these agencies to focus less on the exercise of retributive powers and to embrace restorative approaches and for agencies to develop a crime prevention role through partnership with community organisations Author Paul Omaji argues against concentrating resources on the symptom when the underlying causes are within our intellectual grasp and amenable to effective criminal justice responses Omaji demonstrates the capacity of criminal justice agencies to become constructive partners with community organisations in preventing youth crime and constructs ground rules for high impact partnerships Philosophy and Its Others William Desmond, 1990-01-01

Philosophy and its Others responds to the widespread sense that philosophy must renew its intellectual community with other significant ways of being and mind The author articulates philosophy's community of mind with the aesthetic the religious and the ethical without losing any of its own distinctive voice He develops an original and constructive position between these extremes the Hegelian extreme which reduces the plurality of others to a dialectical totality and the Wittgensteinian and deconstructive options that celebrate plurality but without a proper sense of the connectedness of philosophy and its others Hearings United States.
