Davis, 1985 Lists over 5 200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983      The Poetry of Brecht Philip Thomson, 2020-05-01 Though not a survey of Bertolt Brecht's poetry this book covers the major periods in his work and most of its major themes as well Each of the seven chapters deals with a segment from Brecht's considerably poetic opus A central characteristic of Brecht's poetry is its dual function as self revelation and self concealment This emerges most clearly in the poet's relationship to his reader for whom Brecht dons a variety of guises plays a variety of roles and speaks in a variety of voices Thomson's methodology is pluralist although he includes a discussion of how reader response theory can be harnessed to the task of interpreting Brecht's poetry Various means of interpretation and analysis are used depending on which seems to yield the most information and insight The only reading of Brecht's poetry categorically refused is the one that accepts it at face value as a record of Brecht's life experience Despite outward appearances Brecht is a devious writer and nowhere more so than in his poetry where he most immediately presents himself to his public      The Facts on File

Companion to World Poetry R. Victoria Arana, 2008 The Facts On File Companion to World Poetry 1900 to the Present is a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems      Poetry, Publishing, and Visual Culture from Late Modernism to the Twenty-first Century Natalie

Pollard, 2020-05-27 This is a book about contemporary literary and artistic entanglements word and image media and materiality inscription and illustration It proposes a vulnerable fugitive mode of reading poetry which defies disciplinary categorisations embracing the open endedness and provisionality of forms This manifests itself interactively in the six case studies which have been chosen for their distinctness and diversity across the long twentieth century the book begins with the early twentieth century work of writer and artist Djuna Barnes exploring her re animation of sculptural and dramatic sources It then turns to the late modernist artist and poet David Jones considering his use of the graphic and plastic arts in The Anathemata and next to the underappreciated mid century poet F T Prince whose work uncannily re activates Michelangelo s poetry and sculpture The second half of the book explores the collaborations of the canonical poet Ted Hughes with the publisher and artist Leonard Baskin during the 1970s the innovative late twentieth century poetry of Denise Riley who uses page space and embodied sound as a form of address and finally the contemporary poet Paul Muldoon who has collaborated with photographers and artists as well as ventriloquising nonhuman phenomena The resulting unique study offers contemporary writers and readers a new understanding of literary artistic and nonhuman practices and shows the cultural importance of engaging with their messy co dependencies The book challenges critical methodologies that make a sharp division between the textual work and the extra literary and raises urgent questions about the status and autonomy of art and its social role
