Sexton,1972 Anne Sexton was an American poet from Weston Massachusetts known for her highly personal confessional verse She won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1967 Themes of her poetry include her suicidal tendencies her depression and her relationships with her husband and children Live or Die Anne Sexton,2016-04-05 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize A gripping poetry collection mapping the thorny journey from madness to hope With her emotionally raw and deeply resonant third collection Live or Die Anne Sexton confirmed her place among the most celebrated poets of the twentieth century Sexton described the volume which depicts a fictionalized version of her struggle with mental illness as a fever chart for a bad case of melancholy From the halls of a psychiatric hospital the scene of the disordered scenes in Flee on Your Donkey to a child s playroom a graveyard full of dolls in Those Times these gripping poems offer profound insight on the agony of depression and the staggering acts of courage and faith required to emerge from its depths Along with other confessional poets like Sylvia Plath and Robert Lowell Sexton was known for grappling with intimate subjects traditionally considered taboo for poetry such as motherhood menstruation and drug dependence Live or Die features these topics in candid and unflinching detail as Sexton represents the full experience of being alive and a woman as few poets have before Through bold images and startlingly precise language Sexton explores the broad spectrum of human emotion ranging from desperate

Writing Back Robin Peel, 2002 Writing Back Sylvia Plath and Cold War Politics explores the relationship between Plath's writing and Cold War discourses and argues that the time 1960 1963 the place England and the global politics are important factors for us to consider when we consider the rhetoric of Plath's later poetry and fiction Based on fresh readings arising from new research this study argues that Plath should not be depoliticized and examines her writing alongside the discourses of the period as expressed in newspaper reporting magazines and BBC radio In contrasting her relationship with institutions in America in the 1950s with her responses in England to church the American arms industry the National Health Service and the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament it becomes clear that the process of cultural defamiliarization causes Plath to question the model of the individual artist divorced from society a model of the writer that had previously seemed so attractive
