Early Modernity and Mobility Sebouh David Aslanian, 2023-06-27 A history of the continent spanning Armenian print tradition in the early modern period Early Modernity and Mobility explores the disparate yet connected histories of Armenian printing establishments in early modern Europe and Asia From 1512 when the first Armenian printed codex appeared in Venice to the end of the early modern period in 1800 Armenian presses operated in nineteen locations across the Armenian diaspora Linking far flung locations in Amsterdam Livorno Marseille Saint Petersburg and Astrakhan to New Julfa Madras and Calcutta Armenian presses published a thousand editions with more than half a million printed volumes in Armenian script Drawing on extensive archival research Sebouh David Aslanian explores why certain books were published at certain times how books were sold across the diaspora who read them and how the printed word helped fashion a new collective identity for early modern Armenians In examining the Armenian print tradition Aslanian tells a larger story about the making of the diaspora itself Arguing that confessionalism and the hardening of boundaries between the Armenian and Roman churches was the driving engine of Armenian book history Aslanian makes a revisionist contribution to the early modern origins of Armenian nationalism Parliamentary Studies ,1963 The Agricultural Economist and Horticultural Review ,1912 Remapping World Cinema Stephanie Dennison, Song Hwee Lim, 2006 Covering a broad scope this collection examines the cinemas of Europe East Asia India Africa and Latin America and will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies as well as to film enthusiasts keen to explore a wider range of world cinema Jacket House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means, 1953 Barbary Entanglements John M. Chamberlin, 2025-12-01 How the United States confrontation with North African raiders established its legitimacy on the world stage For the fledgling United States of America the first major foray onto the international stage came off the North African coast in the waters of the Mediterranean Sea When Barbary corsairs preyed on American merchant ships their young government and new navy were compelled to step in Barbary Entanglements shows how interactions with the Barbary states the independent empire of Morocco and the semi autonomous Ottoman regencies of Algiers Tunis and Tripoli over the issue of privateering transcended economic grievances and allowed American consuls and servicemen to demonstrate the viability and reliability of their new nation within the European diplomatic system More than simply protecting trade US intervention against Barbary corsairs between 1784 and 1825 aimed to establish American sovereignty and demonstrate treaty worthiness to their European sister nations In this deeply researched and insightful study John Chamberlin not only offers a granular account of how the Barbary system of corsairing and ransom slavery worked over four decades He also highlights nascent federal authorities coordinating diplomatic efforts with lesser European powers such as Sweden and Denmark to gain legitimacy and he makes unprecedented use of Arabic language sources to reframe what we know about the development of early American foreign policy In the process he offers a dramatic retelling of how the United States first announced itself as a force to be reckoned with on the international scene The Alkaloidal Clinic ,1902 Reports of Committees and Discussions Thereon ,1890 Excursion Appendix ,1890 Report of the Delegates of the United States of America to the Seventh International Conference of American States, Montevideo, Uruguay, December 3-26, 1933 ,1934
