Hausladen, 2010-01-01 From Tony Hillerman's Navajo Southwest to Martin Cruz Smith's Moscow an exotic vividly described locale is one of the great pleasures of many murder mysteries Indeed the sense of place no less than the compelling character of the detective is often what keeps authors writing and readers reading a particular series of mystery novels This book investigates how police procedural murder mysteries have been used to convey a sense of place Gary Hausladen delves into the work of more than thirty authors including Tony Hillerman Martin Cruz Smith James Lee Burke David Lindsey P D James and many others Arranging the authors by their region of choice he discusses police procedurals set in America the United Kingdom and Ireland Europe Moscow Asia and selected locales in other parts of the world as well as in historical places ranging from the Roman Empire to turn of the century Cairo      The Feeling of Space Christopher Bardt, 2024-12-31 A richly illustrated exploration of humanity's drive to shape life as a spatial project from Plato's time to the digital era Place is something real but space is generally conceived as abstract and immaterial In The Feeling of Space Christopher Bardt explores this damaging modern binary and traces the contradictory impulses that have dematerialized our sense of space through history fear and wonder a yearning for the infinite and intimate and the need for autonomy and belonging Using rich illustrations and examinations of art technology and philosophy Bardt argues that if we can get back to first feeling space then we can treat space as the substance that gives agency to our intersubjectivity the exchange of conscious and unconscious thoughts we have with others Expertly connecting ideas with clear examples from lived experiences Bardt's revolutionary framework will appeal to a broad readership particularly those who are interested in the theoretical and philosophical aspects of spaces In an age where digital media has dissolved instead of increased our sense of connection The Feeling of Space shows that when we learn to experience space as a medium as real as a place we not only see ourselves as inherently spatialized beings but we can also rebuild the bonds that tie us together      Poems of the Ocean - A journey to environmental awareness Wilfredo A. The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2017-07-27 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The claim has been made that we are gripped today in an aesthetic crisis with considerable theological ramifications Aesthetics which has existed since the first human heart was moved by the influence of the beautiful has played a major role both implicit and explicit in theological reflection In The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro Garcia Rivera draws from the North American philosophical tradition and Hispanic theological thought to propose a new aesthetic principle a redemptive building of the community of the beautiful The Community of the Beautiful focuses on the premise that religion and beauty go together Yet today hundreds of theological treatises continue to speak solely of the truth of their claims The Community of the Beautiful addresses this silence with a proposal about the relationship between God and the beautiful It asks the question How can the finite human creature name the nameless perceive the imperceptible make visible the invisible The answer is what Hans Urs von Balthasar called a theological aesthetics The Community of the Beautiful is not simply an analysis of Balthasar's theology there exists a more personal and concrete reason for a reconsideration of the connection between God and the beautiful The experience of a particular living ecclesial tradition the Latin Church of the Americas may be a guide to a world that lost its confidence in the religious dimensions of the beautiful Garcia Rivera recasts the question of theological aesthetics posed above in light of the religious experience of the Latin Church of the Americas so that the question becomes What moves the human heart To answer that question Garcia Rivera draws on along ignored philosophical tradition The philosophical semiotics of Charles Peirce and Josiah Royce enter into dialogue with the theological aesthetics of Hans Urs von Balthasar to describe the traditional transcendentals the True and the Good as communities The final transcendental the beautiful enters into conversation with the semiotic aesthetics of Jan Mukarovsky and the religious experience of the Latin American Church to become the dazzling Vision of the community of the beautiful God's community Chapters are Pled Beauty A Different Beauty Seeing the Form The Community of the True The Community of the Good The Community of the Beautiful and Lifting up the Lowly Alejandro R Garcia Rivera a Roman Catholic lay theologian received his doctorate in theology from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and holds degrees in physics from Ohio State University and Miami University The author of numerous articles and winner of a Catholic Press Association award he is assistant professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley
