Constructing Transgressive Sexuality in Screenwriting LJ Theo, 2017-10-09 This book approaches the construction of complex and transgressive pervert characters in mainstream not art adult oriented not pornographic cinema It deconstructs an episteme on which to base the construction of characters in screenplays in a way that acknowledges how semiotic elements of characterisation intersect In addition it provides an extended re phrasing of the notion of the pervert as Feiticiero a newly coined construct that might serve as an underpinning for complex sexual filmic characters that are both entertaining and challenging to audiences This re phrasing speaks to both an existential phenomenological conception of personhood and to the scholarly tradition of the linguistic turn of continental philosophers such as Foucault and Lacan who represent language not primarily as describing the world but as constructing it The result is an original and interdisciplinary volume that is brought to coherence through a queer post humanist lens

Finding the Personal Voice in Filmmaking Erik Knudsen, 2018-10-05. This book philosophically and creatively examines ways in which independent filmmakers may explore through practice the discovery and development of a personal voice in the making of their films. Filmmaker and academic Professor Erik Knudsen uses a combination of autoethnographic experience derived from his own filmmaking practice and new insights gained from a series of ethnomediaological StoryLab workshops with independent filmmakers in Malaysia, Ghana, and Colombia to drive this innovative examination. The book contextualises this practice exploration within an eclectic psychological and philosophical framework that ranges from Jungian psychological theories of the collective unconscious to Sheldrake's scientific theories of morphic resonance, from Christian mystical ideas about creative motivation to structuralist theories that underpin our linguistic understanding of story and narrative. Why should we create? What is a creative act? This in-depth study tackles these questions by examining the early ideation stages of cinematic expression and ultimately seeks to understand the practical ways in which ideas are shaped into stories and narratives.

Screenwriting from the Inside Out Margaret McVeigh, 2023-12-12. This book provides aspiring screenwriters with a practical and informed way to learn how to think and write like a creative. It stands apart from yet complements other screenwriting books by connecting the transdisciplinary academic fields of screenwriting, film studies, and cognitive psychology and neuroscience. Using a stepped approach, it shows the writer how to understand that how we think shapes what we write so that we may write better.

Storytelling in Radio and Podcasts

Sven Preger, 2021-07-24 This textbook offers a practical guide to creating narratives in audio media. It is one of the most beautiful and complex tasks in radio and podcasting: how do you tell a compelling story and keep your listeners tuned in? In Storytelling in Radio and Podcasts, Preger offers practical answers to crucial questions: What material is suitable for long stories? How can I bind listeners to a real story for 15, 30, or 60 minutes? Or even get them excited about a whole series? How do I maintain suspense from beginning to end? How do I find my narrative voice? And how do I develop a sound design for complex narratives? Richly illustrated using practical examples, the book guides the reader through various stages of developing a non-fiction narrative and examines structure, character development, suspense, narration, sound design, and ethics.
