F. Wharton, 2000 Celebrating the 400th anniversary of John Marston's debut as a professional playwright this collection of critical essays on his work by leading scholars in the early modern field discovers in the de-centred hilarious but unsettling work of this idiosyncratic Renaissance dramatist an uncannily post modern voice Always at odds with his contemporaries the censor and sometimes his own audience Marston is shown to be a deeply conflicted figure but the qualities which estranged him from previous critical eras are precisely those that are now instantly accessible This volume's essays the themes of which coincide both in contemporary currents in literary theory and criticism and in the plays of John Marston reveal at every turn the full extent of his ambiguity towards politics gender and the very medium he wrote for and in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization Deborah Dash Moore, Nurith Gertz, 2012-11-20 Presents an encyclopedia of Jewish culture from 1973 to 2005 including secular and religious examples from the visual arts literature and popular culture When Jesus Came, the Corn Mothers Went Away Ramón A. Gutiérrez, 1991 The author uses marriage to examine the social history of New Mexico between 1500 and 1846 Power to Hurt William Frank Monroe, 1998 William Monroe addresses what William J Bennett ignores in The Book of Virtues How do readers use literature as equipment for living Tackling modernism and postmodernism Monroe outlines virtue criticism an alternative to current theory Focusing on works by T S Eliot Vladimir Nabokov and Donald Barthelme he demonstrates that these alienistic texts are not just filled with belligerence but are also endowed with virtues such as trust and the promise of solidarity with the reader By considering these vital texts as responses to personal situations and institutional practices Monroe brings literature back to the common reader and shows how it offers functional responses to the dysfunctional situations of modern life Readers interested in literary criticism American culture and the relationship between ethics and literature will be fascinated by virtue criticism and this fresh look at the virtues and vices of alienation Chosen as a Choice Magazine's Outstanding Academic Book for 1999 Will to Power David Mulhall, 2011-11-01 This study of British Columbia's most famous missionary Father A G Morice OMI casts new lights on his motives and actions Extraordinarily vain and egotistical Morice was obsessed with gaining power and recognition as a missionary explorer and Indian expert. With his native intelligence and boundless energy and determination he built a veritable kingdom for himself in northern B.C. However his rebellious and erratic behaviour finally led to a conflict with his superiors as David Mulhall points out in this fascinating account of a very atypical Oblate missionary. A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music. It is all about after having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills. We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality. This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty. The book relates five areas of general human interest: spirituality, philosophy, science, art, and body awareness. The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music. Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music their patterns of discipline are comparable to self-discipline. A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills there is enjoyment in being yourself which is a neglected liberal art.

Becoming an Existential-Humanistic Therapist Julia Falk, Louis Hoffman, 2021-12-02 Existential humanistic psychology recognizes that an essential part of becoming a good therapist is developing a way of being that is healing. This makes the journey to becoming an existential humanistic therapist a personal and transforming journey. In Becoming an Existential Humanistic Therapist editors Julia Falk and Louis Hoffman have collected the stories of 11 influential existential humanistic therapists including Kirk Schneider, Lisa Xochitl Vallejos, Ed Mendelowitz, Katerina Zymnis, Mark Yang, Myrtle Heery, Nathaniel Granger, Orah Krug, Xuefu Wang, Kathleen Galvin, and Shawn Rubin. As these prominent leaders share their stories of becoming they also consider what it means to be an existential humanistic therapist and their vision for the future of this school of psychotherapy. Alongside these stories HeeSun Park reviews two important research studies on becoming an existential humanistic therapist while Falk and Hoffman highlight the central themes emerging from the narratives. Park, Falk, and Hoffman also share their own stories of becoming. The book concludes with reflective exercises for individuals considering pursuing a career as an existential humanistic counselor or therapist as well as exercises for current therapists to reflect upon their own journey. Whether already an existential humanistic therapist wanting to reflect upon your journey or a student considering pursuing becoming an existential humanistic therapist this volume is essential reading to clarify and deepen one's journey.
