The Hero With A Thousand Eyes A Historical Novel:

The Hero with a Thousand Eyes Karma Ura,1995 The History of Bhutan Karma Phuntsho,2014-08-15 In 2008 Bhutan triumphantly took the stage as the world's youngest democracy But despite its growing prominence and rising scholarly interest in the country Bhutan remains one of the least studied and least well known places on the planet Karma Phuntsho's The History of Bhutan is the first book to offer a comprehensive history of Bhutan in English Along with a detailed social and political analysis it offers substantive discussions of Bhutan's geography and culture the result is the clearest richest account of this nation and its history ever published for general readers A 2015 Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title Award Winner The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Lonely Planet The World Lonely Planet, A Shangri-la Economy Mahmood Ansari,2012 Analysing the status of agrarian justice and its relation with the national slogan of gross national happiness GNH in Bhutan this monograph deals with food insecurity resource asymmetry and growth in the political economy perspective In this tiny Himalayan nation under absolute democratic monarchy there are huge inequities in the ethos of general income and consumption poverty and a fundamental transformation in the political economy of this south Asian nation is in urgent need Readers of this monograph would be mainly from Nepal Bhutan and India though those who have interest in the economy and society of the Himalayas would also be the beneficiaries It attempts to highlight understanding about the specificities of south Asia and some novel features of poverty in this region Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P. Wouters,Michael T. Heneise,2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian nestles between the giant nation states of China and India Often called the Land of the Thunder Dragon it remained secluded until recent times the first ever tourist set foot in Bhutan in 1974 and was followed by the introduction of television and new technology at the turn of the 21st century In 2008 Bhutan became the world s youngest democracy moving from an absolute to a constitutional monarchy in a historic change initiated by the revered and much loved Fourth King Jigme Singye Wangchuck A sovereign country throughout the ages Bhutan is now establishing its place on the world stage and demonstrating leadership on climate and environmental issues It is determined to maintain its Buddhist culture and way of life as it evolves and adapts to political change and economic challenges Its unique development policy of Gross National Happiness which measures progress not through material gain but on a happiness scale is generating global interest The abundant hospitality of the Bhutanese the variety of Bhutan s ancient monasteries and colorful festivals and its near perfect ecosystem and natural beauty never fail to reward the traveler Culture Smart Bhutan will give you a deeper insight into the country s history values and customs as well as practical guidance on how to develop a meaningful rapport with the Bhutanese

Constitutional Resilience in South Asia Swati Jhaveri,Tarunabh Khaitan,Dinesha Samaratne,2023-06-01 South Asia has had a tumultuous and varied experience with constitutional democracy that predates the recent rise in populism and its study in established democracies And yet this region has remained largely ignored by constitutional studies and democracy scholars This book addresses this gap and presents a contribution to the South Asia centric literature on the topic of the stability and resilience of constitutional democracies Chapters deal not only with relatively well known South Asian countries such as India Bangladesh Pakistan and Sri Lanka but also with countries often ignored by scholars such as Bhutan Nepal Maldives and Afghanistan The contributions consider the design and functioning of an array of institutions and actors including political parties legislatures the political executive the bureaucracy courts fourth branch guarantor institutions such as electoral commissions the people and the military to examine their roles in strengthening or undermining constitutional democracy across South Asia Each chapter offers a contextual and jurisdictionally tethered account of the causes behind the erosion of constitutional democracy and some examine the resilience of constitutional institutions against democratic erosion

Hidden Bhutan Martin Uitz,2017-02-13 In 2006 Time magazine listed the King of Bhutan Jigme Singye Wangchuk as one of the 100 leaders and revolutionaries who are changing our world today Yet it was only in the 1960s that the first road linking the Kingdom of the Thunder Dragon with India was opened and since 1974 only a strictly limited number of tourists have been allowed to visit each year Martin Uitz a renowned expert on Bhutan describes how the Bhutanese in pursuit of the principle of Gross National Happiness are carefully moving towards a more modern future including a constitution and democracy whilst preserving their traditional society and attempting to conserve the environment Uitz made many fascinating discoveries in this enigmatic Kingdom He was able to explain why the only traffic light was taken out of service why six men are not allowed to go on a journey together and what the subtle eroticism of a traditional hot stone bath is all about Along the way he also discovered that the Bhutanese hills are more alive with Edelweiss than the hills around his native Salzburg Development Challenges in Bhutan Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt,2017-03-21

This book provides essential insights into Bhutan's developmental challenges It analyzes and scrutinizes the sovereign state's developmental approach including the idea of Gross National Happiness GNH which has replaced Gross National Product GNP as a measurement of prosperity The authors also explore and deconstruct ideational and cultural aspects of knowledge production and present a critical overall assessment of the political economy of education policy health ICT and migration in Bhutan The book is divided into five parts all taking a critical approach towards inequality Part one offers an assessment of Bhutan's developmental trajectories part two deals with GNH equality and inclusion versus exclusion part three is devoted to culture legal issues and the politics of change and part four to governance and integration section five addresses health food and disparities This book will appeal to all scholars of South Asian affairs and development studies as well as to diplomats and professionals involved in development aid Education in Bhutan Matthew J.
